MEANY SAYS: Neither Party Is Liked 'Dixiecrats' And 'Big Business' Are Tagged

By The Associated Press
The head of the combined AFL-CIO says there is not enough difference between the Republican and Democratic parties to "attract the trade union movement to 'buy' either one" in 1956.

Speaking at the legislative conference of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Dept. in Washington Friday, President George Meany said:

"We couldn't 'buy' the Democratic party with their 'Dixiecrats' and their record on civil rights, and we couldn't 'buy' the Republican party with its subservience to big business."

In 1952 both the AFL and the CIO, then separate organizations, endorsed the unsuccessful Democratic nominee, Adlai Stevenson. Leaders of the 15-million-member combined organization are to meet in June to decide whether a special convention should be called this year to endorse a candidate for 1956.

Earlier this week Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers and vice president of the AFL-CIO, said he might bolt the Democratic party unless it took a forthright stand on civil rights.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said meanwhile that his analysis of last Tuesday's primaries in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Alaska showed that Stevenson's support "has increased since 1952, while that of both President Eisenhower and Sen. Kefauver has declined."

While Kefauver is campaigning in Washington, Stevenson plans to tour Oregon this weekend.

Back in Washington, D.C., Vice President Nixon attended the regular Friday morning Cabinet session and was congratulated by administration colleagues on his announcement that he will accept renomination on an Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

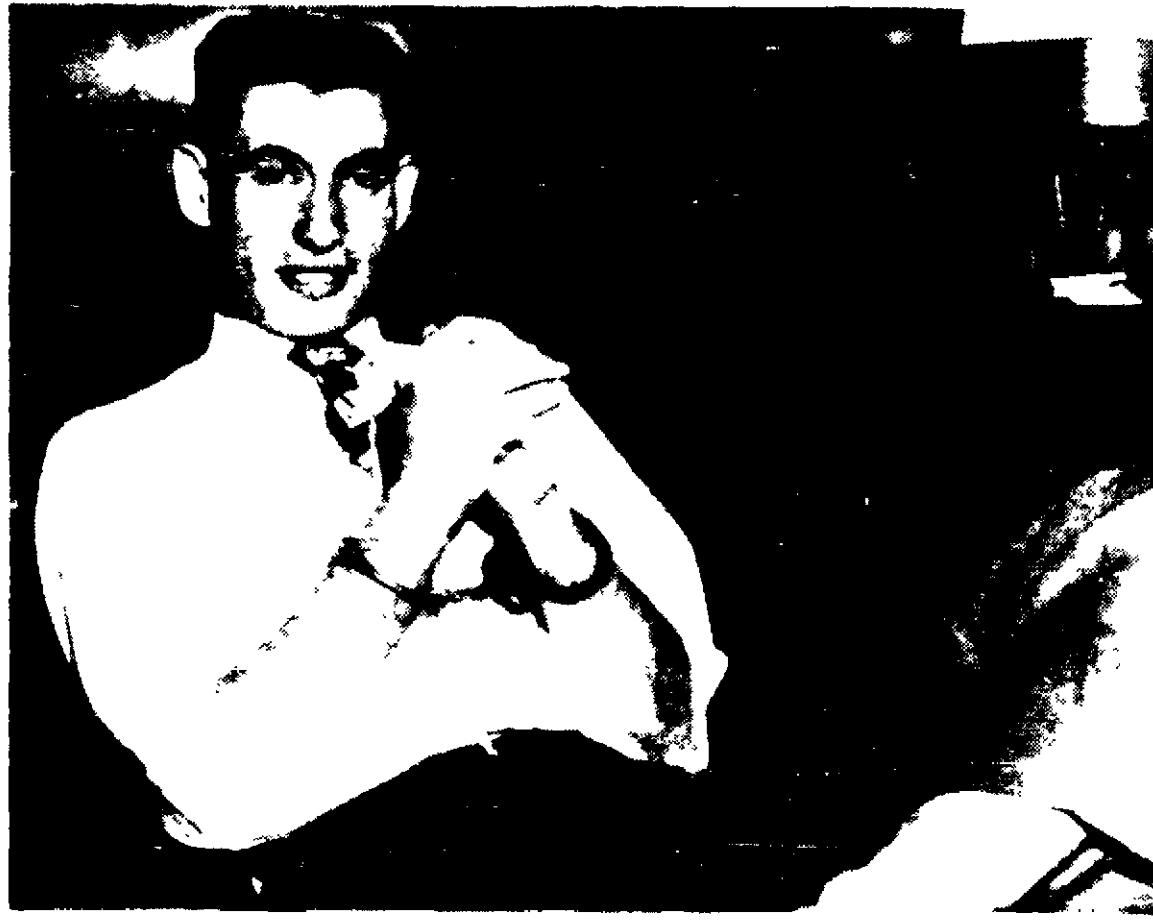

Secretary of State Dulles was quoted as expressing gratification that "the team this year is again going to be Ike and Dick."

Graham's Confession Is Admitted

... State To Ask Death

DENVER — Judge Joseph M. McDonald agreed late Friday to admit as state evidence John Gilbert Graham's confession to the FBI that he bombed an airliner which killed 44 persons.

The ruling was made in Denver District Court after Graham testified, during the absence of the jury trying him for murder, that the confession was false and was made after the FBI threatened to arrest his wife.

"The court is fully convinced it is a voluntary statement," Judge McDonald ruled in accepting the evidence. It will enable the state to press for the death penalty when the case goes to the jury of seven men and five women.

"You mean to tell this court you assumed responsibility for 44 deaths because something was said about your wife going to jail?" Dist. Atty. Bert Keating demanded.

Graham is charged specifically with the death of his mother Mrs. Daise E. King, 55, who boarded the airliner at Denver. The state contends he placed a homemade dynamite bomb in his mother's luggage before she boarded the airliner a few minutes before it exploded in the air near Longmont, Colo., last Nov. 1.

The testimony about whether the confession was voluntary disclosed that the discrepancy came in statements given by himself and his 22-year-old wife, Gloria.

Roy Moore, assistant special agent in charge of the Denver office of the FBI, told the court that Mrs. Graham's statement, given right after the crash, said her husband showed her a bulky package which he described as a Christmas present for his mother, to be placed in her luggage without her knowledge so it would surprise her when she reached Alaska.

She was going to Alaska to visit her daughter, Mrs. Helen Habutzel.

No Present
Graham's statements to FBI agents on two occasions prior to his interrogation as a suspect said there was no Christmas present, Moore told the court.

Moore quoted Graham as saying he had considered buying a present for his mother but had not done so.

NU Names Hall Head Of Journalism School

Dr. William E. Hall, head of the departments of journalism and public information at Texas Tech in Lubbock, was named Friday as new director of the University of Nebraska's school of journalism.

Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin made the interim appointment, subject to the approval of the University's Board of Regents, tentatively scheduled to meet next Saturday morning, May 3. A meeting scheduled for this Saturday was canceled.

Dr. Hall's appointment is effective July 1. He will succeed Dr. William F. Swindler, who recently submitted his resignation as director. Dr. Swindler, who has been director since 1948, will remain as professor of journalism.

The new director has had 15 years of newspaper and magazine experience.

Worked in N.M.
He worked approximately five years on the staff of the Albuquerque Tribune, a Scripps-Howard newspaper. After serving in the armed forces from 1943-45, he was appointed alumni director of the University of New Mexico and editor of the association's monthly magazine. For seven years, he also served that institution as a member of its journalism faculty and assistant to the president.

Dr. Hall received his bachelor's degree in political science from the University of New Mexico, master's degree in journalism from Columbia University and his doctorate in mass communications from the State University of Iowa.

While at Iowa in 1952, Dr. Hall was one of 10 Americans coordinating a study of the "flow of news" between the U.S., Western Europe and India. This project, sponsored by the International Press Institute, was called the most comprehensive news study ever undertaken. Dr. Hall's doctoral dissertation was an analysis of international press freedom.

Dr. Hall joined the Texas Tech faculty in September, 1954.

Dr. Hall comments
Dr. Hall said of his appointment: "It is with pride and pleasure that I accept this appointment. The School of Journalism has a fine faculty and a fine program, and the state boasts an alert, capable press. There is every reason to believe the school's progress can be further accelerated."

The newly-appointed director has been active in the Texas Press Association during the past two years. Also during that time he has served as secretary-treasurer of the South Plains Press Association and as a member of the West Texas Press Association's journalism scholarship committee.

Dr. Hall's appointment was recommended by Dr. Walter Miltzer, dean of the University's College of Arts and Sciences.

The Regents' meeting originally set for this week was canceled because three of the six members said they would be unavailable for the session. Four are required for a quorum. The board was to have taken up the recent removal of C. Clyde Mitchell as chairman of the Ag Economics department.

SHOOTINGS IN ONTARIO PLANT LEAVE 3 DEAD

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP) — Police said two employees were shot to death at the Waterloo Spring Co. Ltd. plant by a third man who stalked through the factory and then killed himself.

Dead are: Donald Huras, 26, company purchasing agent; Fred Beilstein, 37, and Frank Riem, 35. Police said Riem turned the .32-caliber rifle on himself after shooting Huras and Beilstein.

Police and fellow workers of the victims said they could not account for the shooting. Riem was said to have been a former employee of the company and had worked there six or seven years.

Huras's four brothers, his father and widow also work at the plant, employees said.

'Too Much'— Ike Aid Plans Probed

Demos Ruffled By Foreign Money
Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic chairmen of the Senate and House Foreign Affairs committees aimed twin thrusts Friday at President Eisenhower's foreign aid program.

Rep. Richards (D-SC), whose House committee is considering Eisenhower's request for $4,900,000 in new foreign aid, said that is too much money to approve in any case—and far too much in view of Eisenhower's call for a basic restudy of the aid program.

Sen. George (D-La.), head of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, came out against proposed U.S. aid to Egypt to build the Aswan Dam.

Richards, in a news conference, and George, in a separate interview, evidenced Democratic irritation with some of the broader aspects of the Republican-administered foreign economic policy and its secondary details.

Big Shift
Richards said Eisenhower has raised the prospect of a big U.S. policy shift by advocating a new group to study foreign aid. Russia's switch from military to economic tactics has prompted many demands for such a study.

If the $4,900,000,000 sought for the fiscal year starting July 1 is only going to be "an interim authorization" while the U.S. government decides what it wants to do next, Richards said, "it involves too much money."

"If we are likely to have a new approach and a new pattern next January," he said, "why not use up some of the present pipeline—foreign aid backlog—while we wait and see."

The House leader did not mention any specific figure in saying "Congress may well decide" to pass only funds "sufficient to meet essentials" while a new program is worked out. Last year Congress approved $2,700,000,000 for foreign aid.

Too Many Groups
Richards further criticized the administration for what he described as too many previous foreign economic policy study groups which had not resulted in action, and for letting committee members "read in the papers" what he said they should have been consulted on beforehand.

George, whose home state is a major cotton producer, made clear that a big part of his opposition to U.S. help on the Aswan Dam stems from domestic considerations.

Olson Construction Gets S.D. VA Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Award of a $2,771,500 contract to Olson Construction Co., Lincoln, for construction of three buildings at the Veterans Administration hospital at Ft. Meade, S. D., was announced Friday by the VA.

The contract covers construction of a new medical and surgical building, a boiler plant and an incinerator, and involves other work in modernization of the hospital.

His Persuasion Fails

Soviet Envoy Defied Four Say They 'Never' Will Go Back

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Ambassador Georgi Zarubin tried in vain Friday to get four Russian seamen to give up their U.S. sanctuary. They told him: "Never—we want to stay here forever."

The dramatic meeting was arranged by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, at Zarubin's request. The outcome was quite different from a similar hearing April 7 when five other Soviet seamen were hustled into a Russia-headed aircraft at New York's Idlewild Airport after a 20-minute immigration hearing.

The four were in high spirits at Immigration Headquarters Friday after their 1½ hour meeting with Zarubin. In contrast, the stocky Soviet envoy pushed through a group of reporters with his head lowered and muttering, "Sorry, sorry, sorry."

"He was very disgusted," said one of the four sailors, radio operator Michael Ivanov-Nikolov, who invited newsmen to sit in on testimony he is to give Saturday before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Will Tell "Everything"
"We tell you everything then," he said in thickly accented English.

On Capitol Hill, subcommittee Counsel Robert Morris said Ivanov-Nikolov and two others, Viktor Tatarukov and Ben Ermenko, would be heard Saturday morning at a public hearing. The fourth, Viktor Soloviyev, told the subcommittee last week he is happy in America. He said the five others who went home appeared to have been coerced to do so. As for himself, he said, all he wants is a gun for self-protection.

Other witnesses testified the five were "kidnaped." The State Department this week expelled two members of the Soviet United Nations delegation for their part in the sudden departure of the five. The Soviet delegation protested this, however, and in Moscow the five young seamen told a news conference that they made their choice voluntarily.

All the seamen were members of the crew of the Soviet tanker Tuapse. They were admitted to this country after their vessel was seized by Nationalist Chinese.

Cold, Wet Conditions Trek State Warning Issued To Stockmen

Cold and wet weather conditions, predicted for Friday, began moving across the state early Saturday morning—a day late—bringing with it a firm Weather Bureau warning to stockmen in the west and central portions.

Earlier the stockmen's warning was for the northwest and north central, but apparently shifted with the progressing storm.

Effects of the out-of-season weather were felt in Lincoln when a brisk thunder shower along with spotty hail hit the city late Friday night and early Saturday morning.

The shower measured .30 inch in Lincoln by early Saturday morning with a slow fall continuing.

Early Saturday morning light freezing rain and fog was reported at Sidney where rainfall measured .36 inch. At Scottsbluff light snow has blanketed the ground with an inch covering.

Precipitation reports elsewhere gave Imperial .40 inch; Chadron .02 inch and a trace at Omaha where a thundershower fell.

Besides the warning, the Weather Bureau issued a prediction calling for freezing drizzle in the Panhandle, showers in the west and extreme south with colder temperatures in these areas. Moderately strong northerly winds were to accompany the falling temperatures.

Highs expected for Saturday range from the 30s in the northwest to the 40s in the southwest. Light rain, cold, and drizzle were to continue on into Sunday in the southwest and extreme west, the forecast said.

Nevertheless, colder readings did develop in scattered spots Friday. Alliance recorded a low of 30 above, Valentine dipped to a 31 low, Scottsbluff had a 36 low and Norfolk and Chadron had 39 lows. Very light precipitation also fell in widely scattered areas. Only .01 inch was measured at Scottsbluff and Chadron while Valentine and Sidney had traces.

Zeilinger To Take Judge Landis Post

John D. Zeilinger of York was named by Gov. Anderson late Friday to succeed the late Judge Harry D. Landis of Seward as district judge in the fifth district.

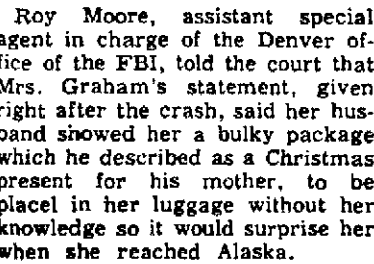

Gov. Anderson in announcing the appointment, reported that Zeilinger said he will be a candidate for the full term beginning next January.

Judge Landis had held the district judgeship at Seward from 1925 until his death this week at the age of 77. He had filed for re-election.

Zeilinger, 44, is York County Attorney. Born at David City, he attended David City High School and the University of Nebraska and was admitted to the Nebraska Bar in 1935.

A veteran of three years in the Navy, he is a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Bar Association, York Chamber of Commerce and the Lutheran Church.

He and his wife, the former Hildegard Batz, have three children.

Gen. Clark Blasts Integration

CHARLESTON, N.C. (AP) — Gen. Mark W. Clark said here Friday he opposed integration of white and Negro troops when the policy was adopted by the government in 1950.

"I did not feel that we should integrate then, and I do not think so now," the retired former U.N. commander in the Far East told the Southern Regional Conference of the Council of State Governments.

Clark said he objected to the integration "from a military standpoint." He based his opinion, he declared, on his experience in Italy during World War II when he commanded the U.S. 5th Army.

"The worst division I had was a Negro division," he said, and added that the troops could not be relied on and that the unit bolted in the face of the enemy.

Graham's Confession Is Admitted

... State To Ask Death

DENVER (AP)—Judge Joseph M. McDonald agreed late Friday to admit as state evidence John Gilbert Graham's confession to the FBI that he bombed an airliner which killed 44 persons.

The ruling was made in Denver District Court after Graham testified, during the absence of the jury trying him for murder, that the confession was false and was made after the FBI threatened to arrest his wife.

"The court is fully convinced it is a voluntary statement," Judge McDonald ruled in accepting the evidence. It will enable the state to press for the death penalty when the case goes to the jury of seven men and five women.

"You mean to tell this court you assumed responsibility for 44 deaths because something was said about your wife going to jail?" Dist. Atty. Bert Keating demanded.

Homemade Bomb
"Yes, sir," the defendant replied.

Graham is charged specifically with the death of his mother Mrs. Daise E. King, 55, who boarded the airliner at Denver. The state contends he placed a homemade dynamite bomb in his mother's luggage before she boarded the airliner a few minutes before it exploded in the air near Longmont, Colo., last Nov. 1.

The testimony about whether the confession was voluntary disclosed that the discrepancy which led to Graham's questioning came in statements given by himself and his 22-year-old wife, Gloria.

Roy Moore, assistant special agent in charge of the Denver office of the FBI, told the court that Mrs. Graham's statement, given right after the crash, said her husband showed her a bulky package which he described as a Christmas present for his mother, to be placed in her luggage without her knowledge so it would surprise her when she reached Alaska.

She was going to Alaska to visit her daughter, Mrs. Helen Hablitzel.

No Present
Graham's statements to FBI agents on two occasions prior to his interrogation as a suspect said there was no Christmas present, Moore told the court.

Moore quoted Graham as saying he had considered buying a present for his mother but had not done so.

The agent, one of several who testified before the judge about admissibility of a confession also said there were other discrepancies between Graham's statements and facts the FBI had developed. Keating drew from Graham an admission he had been advised of his constitutional rights by the FBI before he made his statement. He said he signed the false confession "because I knew it wasn't the truth and we could prove it."

New Demo Ag Bill Starts Stormy Trip

... Objectionable Features Stripped

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new Democratic farm bill, stripped of many features objectionable to the Eisenhower administration, started out Friday on what still may be a stormy voyage through the House.

It was introduced by Rep. Cooley (D-NC), chairman of the Agriculture Committee, as an "official" Democratic substitute for legislation President Eisenhower vetoed April 16.

The bill contains a soil bank plan but not the authority Eisenhower requested to pay farmers this year for cropland they agree to put in the soil bank next year.

Republicans are expected to concentrate on getting this authority into the measure. Eisenhower has suggested that up to 500 million dollars in advance soil bank payments be distributed among farmers to give them some financial help in the 1956 growing season.

Missing from the Cooley bill are provisions for supporting basic crops at 90 per cent of parity—a proposition Eisenhower refused to accept on the ground it would encourage more surpluses, the major farm headache.

The absence of these provisions, however, will draw fire from some Democrats and result in another fight on the House floor.

At the same time Cooley dropped his bill in the hopper, Rep. Poage (D-Tex.) introduced a bill to give farmers the equivalent of 90 per cent of parity by paying them subsidies covering the difference between that figure and levels at which the government now supports the five major crops.

The Democratic leadership abandoned this "compensatory payments" idea after Republicans in the House lined up almost solidly against it.

Poage's bill includes all of the vetoed farm bill except the rigid price supports.

The Cooley version drops not only rigid price supports but the dual parity system of computing price levels and two-price plans for wheat and rice, all opposed by the administration.

Soviet Envoy Defied

Four Say They 'Never' Will Go Back

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Ambassador Georgi Zarubin tried in vain Friday to get four Russian seamen to give up their U.S. sanctuary. They told him: "Never—we want to stay here forever."

The dramatic meeting was arranged by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, at Zarubin's request. The outcome was quite different from a similar hearing April 7 when five other Soviet seamen were hustled into a Russia-headed aircraft at New York's Idlewild Airport after a 20-minute immigration hearing.

The four were in high spirits at Immigration Headquarters Friday after their 1½ hour meeting with Zarubin. In contrast, the stocky Soviet envoy pushed through a group of reporters with his head lowered and muttering, "Sorry, sorry, sorry."

"He was very disgusted," said one of the four sailors, radio operator Michael Ivankov-Nikolov, who invited newsmen to sit in on testimony he is to give Saturday before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Will Tell "Everything"
"We tell you everything then," he said in thickly accented English.

On Capitol Hill, subcommittee Counsel Robert Morris said Ivanov-Nikolov and two others, Viktor Tatumikov and Ben Ermenko, would be heard Saturday morning at a public hearing. The fourth, Viktor Solovoyev, told the subcommittee last week he is happy in America. He said the five others who went home appeared to have been coerced to do so. As for himself, he said, all he wants is a gun for self-protection.

Other witnesses testified the five were "kidnaped." The State Department this week expelled two members of the Soviet United Nations delegation for their part in the sudden departure of the five. The Soviet delegation protested this, however, and in Moscow the five young seamen told a news conference that they made their choice voluntarily.

All the seamen were members of the crew of the Soviet tanker Tuapse. They were admitted to this country after their vessel was seized by Nationalist Chinese.

State Federal Highway Aid Amount Fixed

Deputy State Engineer Henry Schlitt said Friday the announced appropriation of $13,921,571 in Federal-aid highway funds for Nebraska was the amount anticipated.

Schlitt said this figure was used when the State Highway Department planned its program for this biennium. He added it was about the same as last year's appropriation.

An Associated Press dispatch said the amount will be authorized for use during the fiscal year beginning July 1. A breakdown of the total shows Nebraska will get $6,127,828 for its primary highway system; $4,364,876 for its secondary roads; $1,017,210 for urban highways; and $2,429,657 for its interstate system.

Highway projects completed in Nebraska during 1955 included 693.6 miles, with 82 bridges, the dispatch stated.

As of last March 1, there were in the state 709.1 miles of Federal-aid highway projects under construction, 163.4 miles approved for construction, and 784 programmed Federal-aid expenditures in Nebraska in 1955 totaled $9,452,154 with $4,806,559 for primary roads and $4,650,891 for secondary roads the dispatch said.

As of March 1, Nebraska had an unprogrammed balance of Federal-aid funds of $13,548,952, it concluded.

Red Leaders Sail For Home; Talk Of Peace

LONDON (AP) — Russia's leaders sailed for home Friday after voicing a belief their talks with Prime Minister Eden have served the cause of peace. And Eden said Friday night "it may be that the immediate dangers of war have receded."

"The London discussions could be important," Eden told the British people in a brief television appearance. Clearly referring to the preservation of world peace, he added: "They could be the beginning of the beginning."

Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party leader Nikita Khrushchev had raised British hopes with a last-minute promise at a farewell news conference that the Soviet Union would welcome a ban on arms shipments to the Middle East — provided other nations were similarly pledged.

Some experts on East-West affairs considered Khrushchev's reply to a question at that point as perhaps the most significant public statement the Russians made during their 10-day visit.

"We in our own country do not ship arms to anybody and we would like to see no shipments at all. But such shipments are taking place. I think we would answer wrongly if we were to say that we would not sell arms to the states which urge us to do so and the reason for that is that shipments are being made by other countries. If it were possible to agree, through the United Nations or otherwise, that this would not take place, we would only welcome that and be prepared to take part in such an undertaking, which would help bring about peaceful conditions in the troubled areas of the world."

Winding up their tour with praise for British hospitality, the Russian leaders left a Britain keyed to a new "spirit of London" in world affairs — guarded hope mixed with fear Moscow may once again disillusion the West.

U.S. Talisman Is Education For All, Burke Tells Masons

BY VIRGIL FALLOON

The great American talisman is education for all—the free public school system, Dr. Harry A. Burke of Omaha told some 700 Scottish Rite Masons at their 196th reunion banquet in Lincoln.

The Omaha Superintendent of Schools was speaker at the banquet honoring "The 106th Reunion Class." This selected name was also reflected by its 106 members. It was the largest class since 1920 for the Lincoln Consistory.

Dr. Lee Stover was elected president. Other class officers are C. Wheaton Battey, vice-president; Robert Frudeger, secretary-treasurer, and Capt. Walter Kennedy. All are of Lincoln.

Principles Still Valid
Dr. Burke said the fundamental principles set forth by Thomas Jefferson are as valid today as at the founding of the American democracy.

Our system of public instruction, the speaker continued, is ahead of the other systems of the world, which have not changed for over 100 years, in meeting the true needs of education for all.

The basic concepts of this country cannot support a school system designed for the education of an elite class and which ignores the masses, Dr. Burke said. Neither should indoctrination for political or religious purposes enter a public system without race, class or creed.

America's greatness lies in Jefferson's faith in the intelligence of the common man and a public school system voicing our common heritage for the freedom and dignity of the individual, the speaker concluded.

Robert Van Pelt, master of Kadish, was master of ceremonies. Two Lincoln men, Theodore Gould and Col. E. L. Ames, were presented 50-year caps.

Spy Sorry Sister Ethel Chose Death

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—David Greenglass took a painful look into the past and said sometimes "I have been sorry" about helping send his sister, Ethel Rosenberg, to the electric chair as an atom spy for Russia.

But he said she and her husband, Julius, could have saved themselves from a Sing Sing execution just by putting up a hand, saying "stop" and telling the truth.

"It's a hard thing to be called a murderer by people," Greenglass told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. "But it is a much harder thing to deliberately martyr yourself for a completely erroneous cause. That is the most hypocritical and ridiculous thing you can do."

Greenglass was the key witness against the Rosenbergs in a sensational trial in 1951 that resulted in conviction and their execution in 1953. He, himself, is a confessed and convicted spy who helped feed secrets of the atom bomb at Los Alamos, N.M., where he was stationed as an Army sergeant.

15-Year Sentence
The witness now is serving a 15-year sentence at the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa. Like Harry Gold, who related a somewhat parallel story of Soviet espionage the previous day, Greenglass was brought here under guard to help the subcommittee explore what its counsel, Robert Morris, called the "general nature of the Soviet conspiracy."

Gold sat a few feet away, puffing on a pipe, while Greenglass related that his brother-in-law got him into espionage.

He named as defendants Coy W. Pennington, an Oklahoma resident, in whose car he was riding when the accident occurred, the Chicago & North Western Railway system, and Fred Anderson, engineer of the locomotive involved in the accident.

200 Couples Attend All-Bethel Dance
More than 200 couples attended the All-Bethel Spring Dance sponsored by Jobs Daughters Friday night at Antelope Park Pavilion.

The dance was the first of its kind to be sponsored by the six Lincoln Bethels. Games were provided for younger girls attending the event.

Queens of the Lincoln Bethels are Bobbie Wood, Dallas Hunt, Margery York, Norma Pugsley, Kathryn Hurst, and Jane Michaud.

Gen. LeMay: 'AF Slips While Reds Improve'
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, head of the Strategic Air Command, said Friday the operating efficiency of the U.S. Air Force has been "slipping" the past four years while the Russians are "probably improving" in that respect.

LeMay told a Senate Armed Services subcommittee the Red air force is a "more professional" body than this country's in terms of personnel.

And he said the U.S. position threatens to grow worse unless more trained men can be kept in the Air Force.

"I consider the lack of skilled manpower to be my most critical deficiency," said LeMay.

"Disturbed"

In another Senate hearing, Lt. Gen. Donald L. Putt said "we couldn't help but be disturbed" about the progress of U.S. Air power.

Putt, deputy chief of staff in charge of development for the Air Force, commented before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee considering a $4,625,000 request for aircraft development and research.

LeMay testified at an open session called by Chairman Symington (D-Mo) in the Armed Services group's inquiry into the relative strength of the U.S. and Russian air forces.

LeMay said that while the U.S. Air Force can't get enough men to re-enlist, "the main worry of the Soviet airman is that he might be thrown out into the cold world."

He said the Russians are able to keep their trained men in uniform because they make their air force an elite outfit whose officers are among the country's best-paid citizens and enjoy many extra privileges.

Eudel G. Jacobsen of Ogallala was revealed Friday evening as the recipient of the O. J. Ferguson award, presented annually to the outstanding senior in the University of Nebraska's College of Engineering and Architecture.

The award was presented at a banquet climaxing the annual Engineers' Week at the University. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank

Spy Sorry Sister Ethel Chose Death

... Calls It Needless

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—David Greenglass took a painful look into the past and said sometimes "I have been sorry" about helping send his sister, Ethel Rosenberg, to the electric chair as an atom spy for Russia.

But he said she and her husband, Julius, could have saved themselves from a hanging by putting up a hand, saying "stop" and telling the truth.

"It's a hard thing to be called a spy by people," Greenglass told the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. "But it is a much harder thing to deliberately martyr yourself for a completely erroneous cause. That is the most hypocritical and ridiculous thing you can do."

Greenglass was the key witness against the Rosenbergs in a sensational trial in 1951 that resulted in conviction and their execution in 1953. He, himself, is a confessed and convicted spy who helped filch secrets of the atom bomb at Los Alamos, N.M., where he was stationed as an Army sergeant.

15-Year Sentence

The witness now is serving a 15-year sentence at the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa. Like Harry Gold, who related a somewhat parallel story of Soviet espionage the previous day, Greenglass was brought here under guard to help the subcommittee explore what its counsel, Robert Morris, called the "general nature of the Soviet conspiracy."

Gold sat a few feet away, puffing on a pipe, while Greenglass related that his brother-in-law got him into espionage.

Omaha TV Channel To Herald KFAB Application Denied By FCC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission Friday authorized the Herald Corp. to operate a Channel 7 television station at Omaha.

The commission denied an application of KFAB Broadcasting Co. for the same facility.

Follow Recommendations

The actions were in line with an examiner's recommendations submitted in March, 1955.

The Herald Corp. is owned by World Publishing Co., which publishes the Omaha World-Herald.

KFAB Broadcasting Co. is principally owned by The Journal-Star Printing Co., Lincoln, Neb., and the Sidles Co., Omaha. The latter operates an automotive and household appliance distribution business.

The broadcasting company operates Omaha radio station KFAB, which maintains auxiliary studios in Lincoln.

Preferences Listed

In making a choice between the applicants, the commission said:

"We have concluded that the applicant Herald is superior with respect to the factors of local residence, civic participation, diversification of business interests, of its principal, and diversification of the media of mass communications."

"We have concluded that superiority is to be found in KFAB with respect to integration of ownership and broadcasting experience. We have found and conclude no other preference between the applicants."

"We believe that the preferences awarded Herald, all of which are clear preferences, outweigh the preferences found to exist in favor of KFAB."

"Herald will bring to Omaha a station much more closely identified with Omaha interests than would KFAB, and the civic efforts in the past of the Herald's principals impress us with the awareness of civic needs and attention thereto which may be more confidently anticipated if a grant is made to Herald."

Award by Five Members

The award to Herald Corp. was made by five members of the seven-man commission.

Commissioners Robert T. Bartley and Richard A. Mack who were absent when the commission heard final oral argument in the case, abstained from voting.

Tumor Is Fatal For Young Mike; Services Sunday

BRADSHAW, Neb. — Funeral services for Michael Cotner, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cotner of Bradshaw, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the Methodist Church here.

Young Mike died from a brain tumor following an illness of several months. He was forced to quit school in February when the tumor was discovered.

The youngster's case gained statewide publicity when the Veterans of Foreign Wars post at Bradshaw launched a campaign for funds to help with medical and hospital bills.

Surviving in addition to his parents are a brother, Jerry; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Benke and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cotner, all of Bradshaw.

Retired Minister Hurt In Accident

A 74-year-old retired Elmwood minister, The Rev. Bert L. Story of 4264 A, suffered a compound fracture of the right knee and lacerations about both hands and face Friday night when his car hit a tree at 19th and A.

The Rev. Story was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital where he was treated and hospitalized overnight. He was reported in good condition.

Police said the retired preacher was driving east on A, when blinded by the lights on oncoming cars, he drove up the north side lane of traffic. The Rev. Story lost control of his car which hit a tree in the center island. Police said he was alone at the time.

Gen. LeMay: 'AF Slips While Reds Improve'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, head of the Strategic Air Command, said Friday the operating efficiency of the U.S. Air Force has been "slipping" the past four years while the Russians are "probably improving" in that respect.

LeMay told a Senate Armed Services subcommittee the Red air force is a "more professional" body than this country's in terms of personnel.

And he said the U.S. position threatens to grow worse unless more trained men can be kept in the Air Force.

"I consider the lack of skilled manpower to be my most critical deficiency," said LeMay.

In another Senate hearing, Lt. Gen. Donald L. Putt said "we couldn't help but be disturbed" about the progress of U.S. Air power.

Putt, deputy chief of staff in charge of development for the Air Force, commented before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee considering a $4,625,000 request for aircraft development and research.

LeMay testified at an open session called by Chairman Symington (D-Mo) in the Armed Services group's inquiry into the relative strength of the U.S. and Russian air forces.

LeMay said that while the U.S. Air Force can't get enough men to re-enlist, "the main worry of the Soviet airman is that he might be thrown out into the cold world."

He said the Russians are able to keep their trained men in uniform because they make their air force an elite outfit whose officers are among the country's best-paid citizens and enjoy many extra privileges.

House OK's Tax Increase Of $15 Billions For Roads

... Includes 1-Cent Gas Tax Raise

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House passed the biggest roadbuilding bill in history Friday and approved almost 15 billion dollars in higher taxes to help pay for it.

The vote was 388-19. The House legislation calls for a 13-year program of spending totaling $14 billion dollars.

The Senate last year approved a five-year roadbuilding program to cost 18 billion dollars. It carried no tax provisions.

Now the two houses have to get together on what they want. The House measure would bring new and increased taxes totaling $14,800,000,000 during the next 16 years.

Gas Tax Up
This includes a raise of 1 cent on the 2 cents a gallon federal gasoline tax. It also includes higher taxes on tires, trucks, buses and truck trailers.

The major provision sets up 40,000 miles of interstate and defense highways connecting 42 state capitals and 90 per cent of all cities over 50,000 population.

The federal government would pay some 25 billion dollars and the states almost three billion on this interstate system.

More Federal Aid
The federal government also would step up its regular aid to states for roads, so that it would be providing 37½ billion dollars of the overall program.

The chief debate in the House was on wage scales for workers building the interstate system.

Court Asked To Dismiss Orme Action

Clarence A. H. Meyer of Lincoln, deputy attorney general, has filed in Supreme Court a motion to dismiss the action brought by Leonard Strom Jr. to keep the name of Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme from appearing on the primary ballot as a candidate for the Legislature in the 20th District.

In his motion to dismiss, Meyer alleged that the petition disclosed that Strom is not entitled to the relief prayed for as a matter of law.

A petition of intervention was filed by Mrs. Orme in answer to the Strom petition. Her attorneys, Van Pelt, Marti and O'Gara, contend the Legislature has no control over the City of Lincoln and its regulations which were established by reason of being granted a charter.

Hearing on the petition will be Monday before Justice Adolph Wenke. Only one judge hears cases of this kind.

Holmes Seeks State's Water Rights Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Nebraska is trying to drum up support for legislation which would nail down the right of a state to control use of water within its boundaries.

Louis Holmes of Grand Island, secretary of the Nebraska Water Users Assn., is visiting with members of Congress this week urging them to support such legislation.

At hearings on the legislation, sponsored by Sen. Barrett (R-Wyo), the Interior Department backed the bill and the Justice Department opposed it. A Nebraska — J. Lee Rankin of Lincoln, assistant attorney general — was the justice department spokesman at the hearing. He took the position that the federal government should have control over water in areas it owns and should not have to comply with state water laws.

Holmes has told the Nebraska Congressional delegation he differs strongly with Rankin on this position. Holmes believes a state has inherent right to control its own waters.

Apartment House Blast And Fire Kill 10 Persons And Injure 7

Water Heater Ignites Blaze

PULASKI, Va. (AP)—A tremendous explosion and fire wrecked a three-story brick apartment house Friday, killing 10 persons, including a woman and her three children. Seven others were injured.

The explosion was touched off when restaurant owner W. J. McHaffey, 75, struck a match to light a gas water heater. The blast was felt for an area of three blocks around the building.

In a short time the apartment house was reduced to a heap of rubble and it was not until late in the day that workmen with earth-moving equipment and picks and shovels recovered the 10th body.

The blast lifted the roof and let it tumble back into the building, said Mrs. Glenn Eller, who was passing by on her way to work at a hostelry mill. "Then it seemed to fall apart."

A state police trooper said the building must have been full of gas since it went off almost like a bomb.

The dead.

Mrs. Eugene Welch; her daughter, Elizabeth, 22, and her sons Victor, 12, and Garland, 16.

Mrs. Helen Denton, 51, and her grandson, Clarke Mabe, 9.

Mrs. George Morris, 51.

Mrs. Minnie Akers, 74.

Mrs. Rose Mathers, 73.

George Goad Jr., 7.

The first floor of the building housed McHaffey's restaurant, a Salvation Army transient home, a grocery, a storehouse and a furniture shop. Seven apartments were on the upper two floors.

Pulaski Fire Chief B. G. Ray estimated the property damage at "roughly" $50,000.

The early explosion caught most of the apartment dwellers asleep. Most of the bodies were found wrapped in charred bedclothing.

Market Destroyed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A spectacular general alarm fire Friday destroyed the sprawling Dade County Farmers Market produce shed, scattering embers over a wide area and causing several reported injuries.

Firemen working in intense heat said several hoses caught fire. Cinders eddied overhead as far as Miami International Airport, 30 blocks from the fire scene.

Buildings near the blazing produce shed were wet down in an effort to prevent their igniting.

One fire engine was damaged and a fireman standing beside it suffered burns.

Villages Threatened

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP)—A weary crew of more than 1,000 grumblers vied for jobs Friday as men battled a wind-fanned forest fire Friday, trying to keep it from reaching two small villages, a colony of summer homes and camp grounds.

Late Friday, the fire between Alamogordo and the mountain villages of Weed and Sacramento, about 40 miles east of here, had spread to more than 7,000 acres of heavy timber.

Supervisors continued checking a report that three Indian fire fighters had been trapped. Dave Stevens, U.S. Forest Service official in charge of the fire line, said he believed the men either had saved themselves or had been rescued by fellow tribesmen.

University Expects Large Enrollment In Summer School

More than 3,100 students are expected to enroll in this year's University of Nebraska summer session, compared with 2,951 last summer.

Summer school enrollment has been steadily increasing in recent years. In 1952, 2,214 students registered, in 1953, 2,312, and in 1954, 2,570.

The all-time record was in 1947, when veterans boosted the count to 4,408.

An estimated 1,900 of this summer's 3,100 will be working toward undergraduate degrees.

The College of Business Administration has shown the biggest percentage gain in summer school students since 1952, 51 per cent. Teachers College and Arts and Sciences each showed 33 per cent gains in undergraduates since 1952.

One explanation for the steady increase in enrollment is that more students are anxious to complete their college educations ahead of schedule.

About one-third of this summer's students are expected to be "year-around" University students. Teachers College is expected to have about 45 per cent of the number of students enrolled this summer.

University Expects Large Enrollment In Summer School

More than 3,100 students are expected to enroll in this year's University of Nebraska summer session, compared with 2,951 last summer.

Summer school enrollment has been steadily increasing in recent years. In 1952, 2,214 students registered; in 1953, 2,312, and in 1954, 2,570.

The all-time record was in 1947, when veterans boosted the count to 4,408.

The College of Business Administration has showed the biggest percentage gain in summer school students since 1952, 51 per cent. Teachers College and Arts and Sciences each showed 33 per cent gains in undergraduates since 1952.

One explanation for the steady increase in enrollment is that more students are anxious to complete their college educations ahead of schedule.

About one-third of this summer's students are expected to be "year-around" University students. Teachers College is expected to have about 45 per cent of the number of students enrolled this summer.

It was explained that the previous 5 p.m. closing hour of the bureau in the Capitol caused applicants to face the heavy evening traffic which was unfair to them, so a half hour was removed from the working day.

Spots Clear Up

NEW YORK (AP)—High frequency radio and cable communications were normal Friday after a sunspot storm blacked out many areas of the world Thursday night.

Major wireless companies reported they were out of contact with the Pacific Coast for several hours because of the storm, which one firm described as "the worst in 30 years."

Nebraska's Senator Carl Curtis, according to Washington dispatches, has called for public hearings on a constitutional amendment in which he proposes to limit the spending powers of Congress and to provide for reduction of the national debt—two estimable goals, anyone would say.

But Senator Curtis' approach to these two national concerns should leave most of the economists and a large number of his fellow members of Congress in a state of mind ranging from questioning to some degree of indignation.

Limitations on spending, especially those looking to a future where no one knows for certain what claims may be laid upon the nation for either survival or welfare—a future of changing money values and changing factors of life, hardly belong in a constitution. Public experience has demonstrated that laws to limit spending collapsed in the face of change and necessity and governments can't go out of business just because facts refuse to conform to a long gone statement of a wish.

Public spending is a product of national necessity tempered by prudence of Congress, from year to year. An attempt to impair congressional discretion is a statement of no confidence in the very Congress of which the Nebraska reformer is a member.

We seem to recall that both major parties have come out firmly on the side of lower taxes, debt retirement and public thrift. Since both sides are resolutely agreed to everything a constitutional amendment would hope for, it seems the simpler and less involved course would be for everyone in Washington to get to the job without further evasion and debate.

Sir Richard Willin'

When Ike decided to seek re-election, it was only natural that the question of a running mate should arise. Publicly, the President passed the buck to the vigorous young man, Sir Richard, now completing his first term in the Eisenhower administration.

Sir Richard must make up his mind, the President insisted. And Sir Richard was going to take his time to making up said mind, the vice president publicly indicated, possibly just in advance of or during the Republican national convention in San Francisco in August. Here it is, not yet May—a good 3½ months in advance of the convention—and out of a clear sky the vice president reveals that he would be glad to have the convention renominate him, and again to seek re-election as Mr. Eisenhower's running mate.

Scarcely less interesting than the vice president's announcement is his change in plans.

What has happened in recent days to cause Mr. Nixon to change his mind about the timing of his announcement? We personally never thought there was any question about Ike's seeking re-election in the event of a recovery from his heart attack and we never have had any doubt in our mind but that Mr. Nixon likewise, when the chips were down, would become a candidate for re-election. It was only slightly less certain than that night follows day or that day follows night. Something has arisen, however, something which is not apparent at this time, to lead the vice president to the conclusion that he'd better get in and get his feet wet. Will his candidacy hurt Ike? In a recent questionnaire sent out by Newsweek we were quoted as expressing the opinion that Nixon would be harmful to Ike's candidacy for re-election. Nothing has developed to provide a reason for changing one's mind.

Too Ambiguous For Us

If the nation was counting on a well-spelled-out program of foreign policy from its secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, it did not get it in his recent address on the subject. Rather, it received generalities and sophistries.

If one studies the key paragraphs of his pronouncement, they read like this:

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

One did not need to be in the atmosphere of Capitol Hill in Washington long to sense the depth of feeling that has developed over farm legislation. You could feel the bitterness of that conflicting view which has thought that the Eisenhower administration not only betrayed the pledge it gave American farm families in the campaign of 1952 for a program of rigid price supports at 90 per cent of parity, but more important, was leading American agriculture and many of those associated with it down the road to ruin.

In a practical sense, the President—his secretary of agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson—and all those with a finger in farm policy have put all their eggs in one basket. It is the soil bank—not a new idea—and in no sense of the word designed to deal with an emergency. The soil bank program, for whatever it may be worth—and its merits are questionable—is designed for the long pull. Its benefits could not be realized fully short of a year hence, and possibly longer, depending on its effectiveness in wiping out surpluses. Not even a somewhat cynical Congress could get over the shock of the President's proposal to pay out in an election year half a billion dollars with participation in the soil bank plan to be completed later. Some of the members of Congress, some of them who have taken this farm battle deeply to heart, privately were not too careful in expressing themselves. This soil bank proposal to distribute the half billion dollars among farmers in advance of execution of the plan was nothing more or less, they said, than an attempt to buy a portion of the farm vote. Now, that is a rather ugly statement, but the proposal itself was not exactly a thing of beauty even with the most charitable interpretation of the motives behind this surprising generosity on the part of an administration that has sat on its hands indifferently while the farmer's financial position has grown steadily worse. All of a sudden Mr. Eisenhower and those around him wake up to the fact that they have trouble in the farm belt.

So what should they do about it? They cannot in a practical political decision pull in their horns, admit they were wrong, and restore a program which until Eisenhower and his aides began to meddle with it was fairly successful. This "do-nothing Congress," so described by Republican leadership, nevertheless managed to do something Republican leadership found impossible. It went back to a support program at 90 per cent of parity. And it gave Mr. Eisenhower an appropriation of $1.2 billion to put the soil bank into effect. But that was not enough. After all of its fine talk, the Eisenhower administration proposed to use nearly half of that sum—$500 million—to pay the farmer before the soil bank had had a chance to demonstrate its value. Otherwise the money would not get into farm hands to lighten the distress which Benson policies had produced on the farm. It was a pretty brazen proposal in an election year any way you figure it, and while it could catch some farmers off guard, congressional approval of the plan could only suggest more boondoggling than has taken place in years.

The average farmer, much as he wants a sound farm program, does not want a type of charity that does out unearned funds to the man and his family on the land. Whenever the farmer falls for that bait, he has sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. The soil bank idea is a step in the right direction—a well idea—but it cannot rest upon a foundation of doling out half a billion dollars in a presidential election year after seed has already gone into the ground and in the practical sense there can be no planned compliance until another planting season rolls around. This Congress is deserving of credit for turning its back upon this grab-bag by which the administration seeks to undo its earlier shortcomings and mistakes.

Congress had a sense of fitness where the executive branch of government fell flat on its face. That is something that cannot be said about Congress too often. But at least it was not, to put it crudely, buying farm votes.

Reformed Maragon Back On Payroll

WASHINGTON — Some people have lifted their eyebrows over the fact that I recently helped get a job for John Maragon, the Kansas City bootblack and influence peddler whom I earlier helped send to jail. They recall that it was partly over Maragon and his friend, Gen. Harry Vaughan, that President Truman called me some choice epithets; so some readers wonder whether I've gone soft of late.

It's true that Maragon's trip to Potsdam with the President, his dabbling in black-market diamonds at Potsdam, his gifts of black-market perfume to various cabinet ladies were first exposed in this column. He retaliated by calling me a liar, and later was convicted of perjury.

However, John Maragon was a little frog way over his head in a big pond. He was nowhere near as bad as some of the really big influence peddlers, both then and now. And having served his time, it seems to me he deserves a break. The job he has as day laborer in the House folding room isn't going to hurt the taxpayers, and all reports are that he's more than earning his modest pay.

Some interesting things have been taking place in the House folding room where John Maragon, the ex-influence peddler, is now employed. They occurred before he got his job, and involve the man he is supposed to have replaced — Ralph Scalzo. Actually Scalzo lost his job on Jan. 30, two months before Maragon was hired. Nevertheless, GOP Congressman William Ayres of Akron made headlines by charging that Scalzo was fired to make room for Maragon.

Here are the interesting facts, however, as to why Scalzo was fired:

The House folding room is a place where congressmen get speeches folded and mailed out to voters free. They can also get booklets on baby care, and various government documents mailed to the home folks either at cost or—up to a certain limit—free.

House Doorkeeper Luke Hicks has now obtained sworn affidavits to the effect that extra documents, beyond the congressman's quota, were delivered to the office of Congressman Ayres under the direction of Scalzo, the man Ayres didn't want fired.

"On several occasions," states an affidavit by Otis Small, a laborer in the folding room, "I was ordered by Ralph Scalzo to deliver to Congressman Ayres 300 'How Our Laws Are Made.'"

"The secretary in the congressman's office told me to put them down by one of the desks in the office. There was no order taken by me and none signed by the secretary."

This was the reason Scalzo was fired. It was not to make room for John Maragon.

Wagner Emerging As Veep Possibility

NEW YORK—Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York has emerged as an active candidate for vice president on the Democratic ticket with Adlai Stevenson.

The mayor lent his cordial presence to a Stevenson fund-raising dinner which pulled 1,800 New Yorkers to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel at $100 a head. His remarks were almost nonpolitical, but his actions spoke for him. In fact, he had been under heavy pressure from supporters of Governor Averell Harriman to remain away.

Wagner smiled constantly throughout the speech-making as his bright, dark eyes carefully roved the ballroom. Apparently he liked what he saw.

All the diverse elements of the ruling Democratic coalition in the nation's biggest city were represented to a degree. James A. Farley sat with David Dubinsky, the gifted head of the Garment Workers Union which is one of the angels of the liberal party. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Senator Herbert H. Lehman made brief speeches.

It is accepted here that Senator Lehman, now in his 70s, will run again this fall. This, of course, temporarily closes one avenue that Mayor Wagner had considered. At some date, barring the unforeseen, he will try to follow his famous father into the Senate.

Senator Estes Kefauver sensed early that Wagner might be interested in second place on the Democratic ticket. Kefauver has lost no opportunity to praise the New York mayor, who often has said he was for Stevenson and now has all but sealed a pledge to him.

Wagner is the second rising young Catholic Democrat for whom and by whom vice presidential motions are being made. The other is Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Politics everywhere needs fresh new faces which can be promoted on the national scene. The Stevenson dinner dais here showed a galaxy, most of whom already were shining in the early New Deal days. It helped the mayor to stand out, of course.

Governor Harriman is not unpopular with his fellow-Democrats. They do look upon him as a poor campaigner who draws greater applause when he starts a speech than when he finishes.

In Step With The Sower

And a little child shall lead them.

An out-of-city couple with two small children visited the State-house coffee shop at the beginning of the noon rush. After going through the cafeteria line, they were seated at a table for four.

The little girl, about 5 or 6 years of age, primly sat on her own chair while her father held on his lap her younger brother. As they prepared to eat, the little girl looked at her parents in apparently shocked surprise and intoned:

"Aren't we going to say grace as we do at home?"

Apparently embarrassed in a strange cafe, because their faces turned slightly pink, but determined to keep the meal moving decorously, the parents asked the girl to give thanks for the food. They both sat with hands folded on the table.

At nearby tables those who could see them halted in their usual rush to gulp down food. The rattle of silverware and dishes stopped completely.

Some had red faces, as though in self-criticism that they did not do the same. Others more nonchalant seemed to think it the only courteous thing to do.

A nudging of companions at nearby tables was noticed so that all were aware of what was going on. Silence filled the entire corner of the room.

The little girl spoke in humble, simple terms. Only those nearest could hear but those farther away could observe.

Shortly, she intoned, "Amen." A number of lips were seen to move apparently in assent.

Then, and only then, did the diners resume eating and the usual buzz of noonday chat begin.

The expression of faith by the little girl seemed to brighten the

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

Hallelujah, What A Saviour!

"Man of Sorrows", what a name
For the Son of God, who came,
Ruined sinners to reclaim!
Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

Bearing shame and scoffing rude,
In my place condemned He stood;
Sealed my pardon with His blood;
Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

Guilty, vile and helpless, we;
Spotless Lamb of God was He;
"Full atonement" can it be?
Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

Lifted up was He to die,
"It is finished", was His cry,
Now in heaven exalted high;
Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

When He comes, our Glorious King,
All His ransomed home to bring,
Then anew this song we'll sing:
Hallelujah! what a Saviour!

By HORACE B. POWELL

There are grandfathers and grandmothers still with us who can remember when American revival meetings were ringing with this glorious old gospel song.

It was one of the last of the long list of religious songs written by the great evangelistic singer, Philip Bliss. It must have been one of his favorites because Ira D. Sankey, one of Bliss' religious contemporaries and comrades, used to recall how he had heard the author sing it on several occasions in revival meetings.

One of these "singings" took place at a great Chicago evangelistic rally. Another came during a religious service at the Michigan State prison where Bliss preached to the prisoners on "The Man Of Sorrows". Many in the prison audience, it is said, were so moved by the message and by the music which followed it that they came to the chapel altar at the close of the service, to give their hearts to God.

A few years later, when Mr. Sankey and Dr. Dwight L. Moody, the great American gospel preacher, were in Paris, France, for a series of evangelistic meetings, they found French audiences just as responsive to "Hallelujah! What A Saviour!" as American audiences had been, and just as enthusiastic about joining in its choruses.

Crocodile Tears

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I am amazed almost daily when I look over my daily paper at the number of people who are shedding crocodile tears about the banker's plight, especially those on assistance rolls. Caught A Tartar

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: We have heard for so long through the Republican press about inflation under the Democrats that we can scarcely believe that the Republicans now have a good-sized inflation on their hands. Prices of everything except farm products are on the rise and the cost of living is not coming down.

In fact, any tax cuts will be seriously opposed by the Republicans because of the "highly inflationary effects" releasing additional funds into the hands of consumers would have.

The administration, according to its press, has pursued economic policies which have created business confidence. We don't concur that favored treatment and the creation of a favorable "climate" for big business are economic policies. They come closer to being another form of "give-away."

But business has taken this administration seriously. It is expanding its plants, its productive capacity and building up inventories at a rate heretofore unknown. All of this takes money and the supply of money is running exceedingly short.

Instead of the administration supplying the quantity of money neces-

County '54 Ag Product $14 Million

The value of products sold during 1954 by operators of 2,351 Lancaster County farms was $14,253,037, according to preliminary figures released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

The 1954 agriculture census report showed the value of all crops sold in the county was $7,013,702. This included $6,692,946 for field crops, $54,175 for vegetables, $6,981 for fruits and nuts and $259,600 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $7,237,964, the report revealed. This included $1,348,724 for dairy products, $1,025,284 for poultry and poultry products and $4,864,956 for livestock products. The value of forest products sold from the county's farms was $1,371.

The value of farm products sold in Nebraska amounted to $882,141,970 in 1954. This is an increase of 13.2 per cent from the sales of $779,521,289 in 1949.

Acting Director May Be Named To Assistance Post

The possibility of appointing an acting director of State Assistance until a permanent replacement is found faced the State Board of Control Friday.

Miss Mayme Stukel recently resigned the $6,300-a-year state post to accept the $6,500 position of Lancaster County Welfare Director, effective May 1.

The number of applications for the state director's job has been somewhat disappointing, it appeared Friday.

There is the possibility of moving up someone from within the state staff or getting someone from the county level.

It seemed likely that the board would not be able to reach a decision until next week.

County '54 Ag Product $14 Million

The value of products sold during 1954 by operators of 2,351 Lancaster County farms was $14,253,037, according to preliminary figures released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

The 1954 agriculture census report showed the value of all crops sold in the county was $7,013,702. This included $6,692,946 for field crops, $54,175 for vegetables, $6,981 for fruits and nuts and $259,600 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $7,237,964, the report revealed. This included $1,548,724 for dairy products, $1,025,284 for poultry and poultry products and $4,664,956 for livestock products. The value of forest products sold from the county's farms was $1,371.

The value of farm products sold in Nebraska amounted to $882,141,970 in 1954. This is an increase of 13.2 per cent from the sales of $779,521,289 in 1949.

Acting Director May Be Named To Assistance Post

The possibility of appointing an acting director of State Assistance until a permanent replacement is found faced the State Board of Control Friday.

Miss Mayme Stukel recently resigned the $6,300-a-year state post to accept the $6,500 position of Lancaster County Welfare Director, effective May 1.

The number of applications for the state director's job has been somewhat disappointing, it appeared Friday.

There is the possibility of moving up someone from within the state staff or getting someone from the county level.

It seemed likely that the board would not be able to reach a decision until next week.

Two-State Church Meet Set At Seward

SEWARD, Neb. (P)—More than 100 women from Nebraska and Iowa will be here May 1 and 2, for the biennial women's guild convention of the Nebraska synod, Evangelical and Reformed Church. Approximately 45 churches will be represented.

Meet Star Carrier Tom Young

Tom Young delivers Star route 661 in Lincoln, which is the area between 11th and 17th and Pease and Garfield. He is the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young of 1728 Summer.

He is in the seventh grade at Irving Junior High School. Tom enjoys all his subjects but drawing and art are his favorites. He Tom Young also participates in sports, with his main interest in baseball and football. His hobbies are collecting stamps and model houses.

At the present time Tom has 64 customers from which he earns a profit of $25 each four weeks. He has a junior checking account to handle his funds, and also has $300 in savings bonds, which he plans to use for a college education.

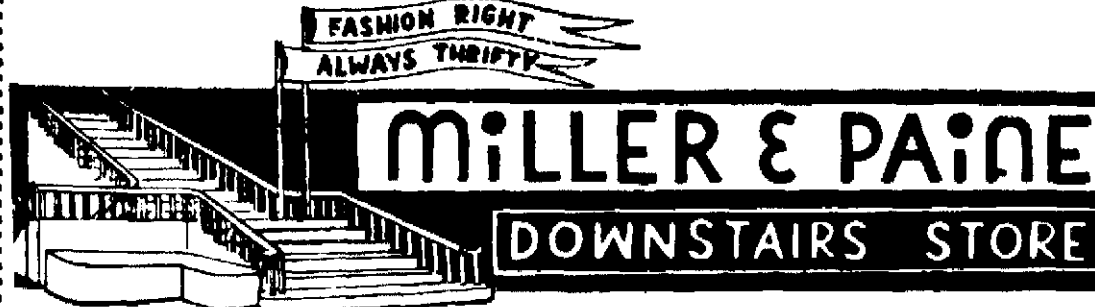

Tom has carried this route for two and a half years, and he feels he has learned much in this time, the most important being that he is better able to get along with people and has had the experience of operating his own business as a carrier-salesman.

Giving excellent service and calling on all prospective customers has helped him build his route. This training will give him an excellent background for any business endeavor he might enter after he grows older.

Any boy interested in a morning paper route should apply at the circulation department of The Lincoln Star at 926 P.

Life at its Best!
You pitch your tent by lonely pines and coax a fire alive. You inhale the chill evening air with its promise of freshly caught trout simmering in the pan. Man—that's life at its best!

When you've pitched your camp after a good day on the stream, nothing beats

a profit of $25 each four weeks.
He has a junior checking account to handle his funds, and also has $300 in savings bonds, which he plans to use for a college education.

Tom has carried this route for two and a half years, and he feels he has learned much in this time, the most important being that he is better able to get along with people and has had the experience of operating his own business as a carrier-salesman.

Giving excellent service and calling on all prospective customers has helped him build his route.
This training will give him an excellent background for any business endeavor he might enter after he grows older.

Any boy interested in a morning paper route should apply at the circulation department of The Lincoln Star at 926 P.

Nebraskan Given Carnegie Hero Medal

Falls Citian Honored For Saving Child

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission Friday awarded its bronze medal to a Falls City, Neb., locomotive fireman who saved a child from death beneath the wheels of a train.

Honored was Otto L. Gibson who was firing a train in Omaha June 14, 1954.

The child was 2-year-old Daniel Galvan. He wandered onto the track at dusk. Two diesel locomotives pulling cars were backing and Daniel was standing just inside one rail as the train approached at 12 miles an hour.

The engineer saw the boy and applied the brakes. Gibson left the cab of the head locomotive and descended the steps at the side of the platform. Holding onto a handrail, he swung himself onto a footboard a foot above the track.

As the locomotive moved within eight feet of the boy, Gibson leaped to the track bed ahead of the locomotive. He landed on his side, grasped Daniel, and rolled him from the track. The two barely cleared the locomotive which stopped 75 feet beyond.

Gibson suffered bruises. Eighteen other persons also received medals Friday, the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission announced.

They included a driller who rescued two co-workers shortly before a dynamite blast would have buried them under tons of rock. D. Paul Henson, 29, of Fredericktown, Mo., was awarded for saving two from an explosion at Mine La Motte, Mo., last May 19.

In three cases the awards were posthumous. Jasper N. Elder, 53, Fairmount, W. Va.; Eleanor M. Chaffinch, 15, Blades, Del.; and H. Dempsey McArthur, 48, Vidalia, Ga., lost their lives in performing acts of bravery.

Cat Mothers Own Kittens, Six Coyotes

The maternal instinct of a cat on the Tony Sabata farm north-east of David City knows almost no bounds. In addition to caring for her own four kittens she took over the mothering of six coyote pups whose mother had been killed. Recently the cat gave birth to a litter of four kittens. A few days later Sabata, investigating the source of a disturbance among his cattle, found and shot a mother coyote. He found her nest of six pups in the pasture and brought them back to the house where the cat promptly adopted them. Four-year-old Mary Jane Sabata posed with the cat and her "flock" for the photographer before it was necessary to dispose of the coyotes. Mama cat just couldn't supply the demand at mealtime. The black animals visible in the picture are the coyotes. (Photo Special to The Star)

Tornado Hits Near Hansen

HANSEN, Neb.—Farm buildings in an area three miles west of here on the Adams-Hall County line were destroyed by a tornado, but there were no reports of injuries to residents or cattle or poultry.

A small building on the R. E. Richardson farm and a hogshed on the neighboring William Oelschlagers farm were demolished. Mrs. Richardson said she and her husband were awakened about 4 a.m. by a terrific roar that sounded like a freight train rumbling through and looked outside to see a funnel-shaped cloud just before it dipped to the ground.

Talk To Patients In Simple English, Med Students Told

OMAHA (AP)—"Forget the $25 words you learned in medical school—save them for the medical society meetings," Dr. Dan Nye of Kearney told University of Nebraska and Creighton University medical college seniors.

"Talk to your patients of their ills in plain, simple English. They'll take your advice and probably get well quicker," Dr. Nye told the 150 seniors.

Other speakers at the fifth annual senior medical day sponsored by the State Medical Assn. included Dr. J. E. M. Thomson and Dr. Harold S. Morgan of Lincoln.

13 Refugees Are En Route To Nebraska

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thirteen refugees bound for Nebraska are aboard the U.S. Navy Transport General Langfitt, now making its 12th crossing under charter to the Intergovernmental Committee for European Refugee Relief.

The General Langfitt left Bremerhaven April 20 with 1,242 passengers of whom 1,179 are coming to the United States under the Refugee Relief Act.

Those bound for Nebraska and their sponsors, who have provided jobs and housing include:

Axtell — Martin Huber, 47, Yugoslav farm worker; his wife, Johanna, 43, and their children, Barbara, 17; Josef, 16; Adolf, 14; and Johanna, 7. They are sponsored by Sister Julianne Holt of Bethpage Mission.

Omaha — Johanna Baier, 49, Czechoslovakian installer; his wife, Sofia, 51. They are sponsored by F. N. Stewart, 6450 Prairie Ave.

Sargent — Hans Appl, 39, Yugoslav butcher; his wife, Kate, 36; and their children, Stefan, 17; and Ingeborg, 12. They are sponsored by Glenn W. Poland.

Talmage — Aleksey Zukow, 41, Russian type setter. He is sponsored by Desley L. Taylor.

Chadron Youth Selected For Boys Choir Of Princeton

CHADRON, Neb. (AP)—Cyrus Hall Jr., 11-year-old son of Mayor and Mrs. Cyrus Hall of Chadron has been selected for the Columbus Boys Choir of Princeton, N.J. He is one of 400 boys who are accepted for the choir after auditions.

The choir appeared in Chadron last month as a part of the Chadron Community concert series. Cyrus has joined the choir for the spring term. He is a fifth grade pupil in Chadron's east Ward School.

Purdy Rites Set Saturday; Ex-NU Player

BEATRICE, Neb. — Funeral services for Leonard N. Purdy, 65, captain of the University of Nebraska football team in 1913, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Griffiths funeral chapel here with burial in Blue Springs. He died unexpectedly.

An outstanding athlete at Beatrice High School, he was named All-Big Six Halfback of the Year in 1913 while attending NU. He was best remembered for his "almost single handed" defeat of Iowa that year.

Mr. Purdy had been in the garage business here until his retirement several years ago. He was a member of Full Gospel Church, Elks Lodge and American Legion. He was a brother of the late Everett Virgil (Pid) Purdy of Nebraska, who was known for his football and baseball feats.

Surviving Leonard Purdy are his wife, Nellie B.; three sons, Leonard N. Jr. and Paul C., both of Picabo, Ida., and William of British East Africa; a daughter, Margaret Struthers of Sun Valley, Ida.; a stepdaughter, Geraldine Hargrave of Los Angeles; a sister, Mrs. William Curry of Memphis, Tenn.; and a brother, Frances of Curtis.

Eustis Fatality Ups State Toll

The delayed report of a traffic fatality near Eustis has raised Nebraska's 1956 traffic death total to 91, Director Robert Pease of the State Accident Records Bureau reported Friday.

A year ago at this time 86 deaths had been recorded. Pease said the bureau was advised that Theodore Koch, 74, died April 18 of injuries received April 16 miles north of Eustis. No additional details were available.

Butler Elected President State Funeral Directors

OMAHA (AP)—Dan Butler, Hastings, was named president and Stewart Dennis, Gering, first vice president, as the Nebraska Funeral Directors and Embalmers Assn. convention ended.

Other state officers are Bill Adams, North Platte, second vice president, and Heath Griffiths, Beatrice, treasurer.

District presidents and vice presidents are:

First: L. A. Campbell, Bellevue, and E. R. Kinsinger, Blair.
Second: Harold Nuckolls, Fairbury, and Griffiths.
Third: Walter Snider, Clearwater, and Joe McKown, Columbus.

Omahans Credit Industrial Boom To Belated Postwar Drive Of '52

Omaha civic leaders woke up in 1952 to the fact that the post-war industrial expansion was passing them by. They went into action, organized the committee of "52," and then contributed $1,000,000 for formation of the Omaha Industrial Foundation. Since then the city has battled its way to an industrial boom that still is growing. The story is told in a series of 15 articles on industrial prospects and potential of Nebraska cities. The previous articles discussed the situation in 14 other leading Nebraska cities.

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha got up off the floor to batter its way to an industrial boom that still is growing.

In 1955 alone it has been estimated that Omaha reeled in around 100 million dollars worth of new industry. And 1956 will be "by all odds" the biggest year in Omaha's industrial history, says M. L. Woodburn, Industrial Department manager of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Biggest prize so far in 1956 is the $50,000,000 Western Electric-Manufacturing plant. Others in the immediate past are Continental Can Co.'s 7½ million dollar layout, Central Fibre Products Co.'s 4½ million dollar plant, Allied Chemical's 27 million dollar plant, Safeway Stores 15 million dollar warehouse, project and Stauffer Chemical Co.'s 1½ million dollar plant, to name a few.

Most of this has happened since 1952 when Omaha civic leaders woke up to the fact that the post-war industrial expansion was passing Omaha by. Manufacturers took a look at Omaha and then located elsewhere.

First step was the formation of the "Committee of '52" to find out why. With the help of professional answers: There was a lack of industrial sites; and there was a "lack of community receptivity" to new industry.

Next step was the formation of the Omaha Industrial Foundation, which through the intervening years has worked hand in hand with the Chamber. This foundation was unique in that more than 400 contributors went together to build a kitty of a million dollars, which they'll never get back and on which they don't get a penny of interest. This foundation has purchased sites for resale to industry as well as provide other aids.

"We don't know of any other place in the United States where that amount of money was gotten under these circumstances," Woodburn said.

Then came the selling campaign —selling Omaha on new industry and selling new industry on Omaha.

Omaha's Advantages
Some of Omaha's advantages are obvious — its location on the Missouri River which is rapidly becoming an important and dependable artery of transportation; An ample supply of water for industrial purposes;

Adequate electrical power supplied by the publicly owned Omaha Public Power District, which is so organized that it can readily keep pace with demands upon it; Ample supplies of natural gas at reasonable rates;

Ten major railroads serving center in the United States; And a huge midlands market.

But the most important factor in attracting new industry to Omaha is shared in common with the rest of the state — a labor force "unsurpassed" in the United States.

When the figures were compiled at the end of World War II it was found that the Martin Bomber Plant in Omaha, staffed by men and women from the farms and villages or second and third generation Nebraska agricultural stock, had produced more pounds of air frame per man hour and per payroll dollar than any other aircraft plant in the United States.

It is commonly assumed that one of the principal factors in bringing Western Electric to Omaha was the excellent experience the firm had with Nebraska labor in its Lincoln plant.

Jet Makes Forced Landing On Oil Field At Kimball
KIMBALL, Neb. (AP)—Maj. J. Biscayart landed his jet trainer plane in an oil field a half mile south of here, stopping almost on the edge of the flush pit of a well.

The major and Lt. Larry Haynie were en route from Montgomery, Ala., Air Base to Denver and ran low on fuel after bucking a strong headwind.

After circling the town a time or two, they picked out the oil field-pasture area as a landing place and made it handily as a crowd rushed to the scene. The plane was to be towed out or dismantled if the soggy ground made towing impossible.

Kay Kinsey, Bride-Elect

Of great interest to Lincoln and former campus circles this morning is the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Walter Duke Kinsey of the engagement of their daughter, Kay, to Gerald K. Hall of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Hall of Farragut, Ia.

The wedding is planned for autumn.

Miss Kinsey, daughter of the Lincoln Junior High School, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Mr. Hall attended Iowa State College at Ames, and was graduated from the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

PEO Installs Officers

Mrs. Wade Stevens of McCook was installed as president of the Nebraska Chapter of PEO Friday afternoon at the closing session of the organization's annual convention held at Fremont.

Other new officers installed were Mrs. C. J. Sanderson of Clay Center, first vice president;

Mrs. Harold Stevens, Omaha, second vice president; Mrs. C. W. Lumbard, Grand Island, state organizer; Mrs. James W. Robertson, Madison, recording secretary; Mrs. L. C. Newell, Lincoln, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Leroy Jack of Tekamah, treasurer.

Named to the board of trustees of the PEO Home at Beatrice was Mrs. Ada Meade of Omaha. The 1937 convention of PEO will be held at Columbus next April with chapters in state group 7 as official hostesses.

Keynote speaker at the convention banquet Thursday evening was Mrs. Winslow M. Van Brunt of Omaha, corresponding secretary of the Supreme Chapter, who addressed the more than 500 delegates and guests on the topic, "Pathways to Peace."

Park PTA Board To Meet

Executive board members of Park PTA will hold a business meeting Tuesday afternoon in room 112 of the school. Board members are urged to attend the meeting, which will begin at 1:30 o'clock.

To Head Nebraska AAUW

MISS LENORE P. RAMSEY

Miss Lenore P. Ramsey of Wayne was nominated president of the Nebraska Division of the American Association of University Women on Friday at the first-day session of the organization's annual convention being held at Norfolk.

Other candidates for office, to be formally elected and installed on Saturday, are Dr. Leona Mae Faylor of Kearney, first vice president, and Miss Lucille Ledwith of Lincoln, recording secretary. The nominating committee report was given by Mrs. E. W. Orme of Lincoln, chairman.

Those continuing in office for another year are Mrs. Charles Dunn, Fremont, second vice president; Mrs. E. F. Benda,

DR. LEONA MAE FAYLOR

Scottsbluff, corresponding secretary; and Miss Alma Ashley, Peru, treasurer.

Presentation was made of the annual membership scholarships to the following students in Nebraska colleges: Doane College, Miss Judith Huffman; Kearney State Teachers College, Miss Mary Alexander; Wayne State Teachers College, Miss LaJean Larson; Nebraska Wesleyan University, Miss Faye Martens; University of Nebraska, Miss Gail Katskee; University of Omaha, Miss Marianne Bowley and Miss Marie Neva White; and Midland College, Miss Neva White.

Mrs. Arthur Schultze of Cozad,

TOWN TALK

WE CAN'T say that April is making her exit with any degree of good humor—or even common courtesy, for that matter—Who ever heard of spending a whole month among people who gave you a hearty welcome, and then leaving in a tantrum—Oh well, another month is on its way with greener grass, brighter flowers and, we hope, nicer weather.

But April has had its good points—It has been an exceptionally busy month as far as May and June brides are concerned, but judging from the calendar May will take over the brides-elect in its cheerful terms.

AND speaking of May brides—this morning Miss Denny Weiss, whose marriage to Lt. Jack Gordon will be solemnized on May 26, makes announcement of the bridal party. Only the members of the families will attend the ceremony, and we are told that Miss Weiss will have but one attendant, Miss Janice Carman of Omaha. David Michel Weiss of Las Vegas, Nev., brother of the bride, will serve Lt. Gordon as best man.

THESE are busy days for another bride-elect, Miss Sandra Burnett, whose marriage to Robert Miller is planned for May 20.

Last Saturday Miss Burnett was an honoree when Mrs. Ludwig Rosenberg and her daughter, Miss Hannah Rosenberg, were luncheon hostesses at their home. The soon-to-be bride was presented with a hostess gift.

AND last evening Miss Burnett shared honors with her fiancé when her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall were host and hostess at an hours d'oeuvres part at their home between the hours of 6 o'clock and 8 o'clock.

THIS morning Mrs. Fred Morgan will pay prenuptial courtesy to Miss Burnett when she is hostess at a 10:30 o'clock coffee at her home. Eighteen guests have been invited, and the soon-to-be bride will be presented with a hostess gift.

ONE OF our June brides—Miss Marjorie Hicks, whose marriage to Lloyd Reed will be solemnized at the First Presbyterian Church on June 17, was complimented on Thursday evening when Mrs. A. T. Kormeyer entertained at a dessert supper at her home. The guest list included a small group of friends of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Clifford Hicks.

THEN there's news of a party for Miss Cynthia Henderson who is to marry Warren Burt on June 8.

A week from Sunday, May 6, Miss Henderson will be the incentive for a brunch when Miss Marilyn Toft, Kappa Kappa Gamma sister of the bride-elect, entertains at her home in Omaha. The guests all society sisters of the bride-to-be and her hostess, have been invited for 11 o'clock. Miss Henderson will be presented with a pottery snow.

BUT leaving the brides-elect for the nonce we open the book on bride and find that when the Hillcrest ladies held their first bridge day of the season last Tuesday, high score was made by Mrs. Mary Parry. Mrs. Esther Hartman took second honors, and Mrs. Harry Spencer received a gift certificate. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Chan Tyrrell and Mrs. Richard Lutz.

JUST can't stay away from the attractive brides-elect—Just now heard that Miss Pat Halvorsen, whose marriage to Norman Watkins will be solemnized on June 16, is to be honored on Sunday when Delta Gamma sisters, Miss Nancy Coulter of Bridgeport; Miss Flossy Haslam of Fremont, and Miss Helen Herrmann of McCook, will be hostesses at a dessert luncheon on Sunday at Hotel Cornhusker.

BSP To Mark Anniversary

When the members of Beta Sigma Phi business girls sorority celebrate the Silver Anniversary of the national organization and the founding of the first chapter in Lincoln, on Monday evening at the Hotel Cornhusker, 25-year members of Beta Sigma Phi will be especially honored.

Also guests will be Miss Amy Wykes of Kansas City, Mo., who will be banquet speaker, Mrs. W. L. Day, an honorary member and sponsor of the Lincoln groups, and Miss Madeline Girard, sponsor for the sorority's city council. Also attending will be sorority members from Fairbury, York and Nebraska City.

Twenty-five year members include Miss Mildred Burris, Mrs. H. E. Crawford, Miss Helen Dudgeon, Miss Florence Frost, Mrs. William S. Jacobs, Mrs. Myron E. Julian, Miss Cora Knott, Mrs. H. C. Pratt, Mrs. L. M. Welsh and Miss Thelma Ullstrom.

In charge of arrangements for the banquet, which will be highlighted by the annual presentation of the Beta Sigma Phi Ideal Girl, is Mrs. LeRoy Krueger, member of Zeta chapter. Toastmistress will be Miss Norma Baxter, president of the sorority city council.

First we learned that Capt. and Mrs. Paul Ecelbarger have house guests—Their week-end visitors include Capt. Ecelbarger's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Webber of Big Run, Pa., and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Russell of Ft. Worth, Tex. Mr. and Mrs. Webber and Mr. and Mrs. Russell plan to leave on Monday to return to their homes.

And speaking of guests—heard that Lt. and Mrs. Robert Morrison and their family have had as their guests Mrs. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hosteller, who left earlier this week to return to their home in Great Bend, Kan.

But there have been other guests at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Morrison—Lt. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morrison and their son, Earlis, were here from Dodge City, Kan., and also visiting the Morrisons.

MISS GEORGIA BENES who will become the bride of Milton Bell this morning at St. Patrick's Church.

MRS. DONALD W. REED

Former Coeds Are April Brides

For the wedding of Miss Georgia Benes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benes of Worcester, Mass., which will be an event of 9 o'clock this morning, the altar and chancel of St. Patrick's Church were arranged with sprays of pink and white gladioli, snapdragons and Marjorie daisies. The ceremony will be solemnized by the Rev. Norbert Schmalz, and Mrs. Robert Studnicka, organist, will play the wedding music. Mrs. Studnicka also will accompany John Moran, the vocal soloist.

Bouffant frocks of pink chiffon over tulle have been chosen for the attendants who are Mrs. Wesely, her sister's matron of honor, Miss Dorothy Vestecka, Miss Marlene Lucas, Mrs. Victor Benes and Miss Eleanor Benes, the bridesmaids. With their costumes, fashioned with fitted bodices and wide, ballerina skirts of chiffon over tulle over tulle, the attendants will wear picture hats in matching tone. Their colonial bouquets will be of pink carnations and red roses. Corinne Benes is the flower girl, and Rodney Wesely will carry the ring.

White tulle, embroidered in a floral motif, over flesh-toned tulle will be worn by the bride. The moulded, basque bodice is fashioned with a deep shell neckline and brief sleeves, their length replaced with mitts of embroidered tulle. The voluminous skirt of clear tulle is aproned with embroidery and is completed with a dust ruffle of gleated tulle. A shell hat of white chiffon, crested with seed pearls, holds in place her multi-tiered veil of imported French illusion, and she will carry a sheaf of calla lilies.

Patricia Wesely will serve Mr. Bell as best man, and seating the guests will be Gene Benes, Willis Kris, Victor Benes, and Bert Hamrick of Dwight.

Following a reception in the Georgian Room at Hotel Cornhusker, Mr. Bell and his bride left for a honeymoon trip after which they will return to Lincoln to reside. For traveling the bride will wear a mauve suit, an Adele Simpson original, and navy accessories.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska and the Chicago Conservatory of Music. Mr. Bell was graduated from the University of Miami and now is serving with the Air Force.

Entertains Club Members

The Friendship Club met Friday afternoon for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Donald Venter. Following the business meeting, there was a program of games and prizes were won by Mrs. D. T. Venter and Mrs. W. T. Wilkins.

One hundred and fifty invitations were issued for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Gene Mille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Mille, and Donald W. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Reed, which took place at an 8 o'clock ceremony on Friday evening, April 27, at the Grace Methodist Church. Dr. Harold Sandall read the service before a background of pink and white gladioli, and lighted candles in seven-branched candelabra. Mrs. Eugene Ludwick, organist, played the wedding music and also accompanied Jerry Miller, the vocal soloist.

Pastel-toned batiste fashioned the daytime-length frocks of the attendants including Mrs. Richard Deems of Alva, who was her sister's matron of honor, and who appeared in the green shade; Mrs. Robert Finley, in pink, and Mrs. E. E. Jacobs, in yellow, the bridesmaids. Small hats and dusters, reflecting the tones of their frocks, completed their ensembles, and each carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Following a reception for the wedding guests, held in the church parlors, Mr. Reed and his bride left for a short honeymoon trip. Upon their return they will reside at 1746 Washington St. For traveling Mrs. Reed wore a black and white sleeveless frock, with a black, white-trimmed duster.

Mrs. Reed is a former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

Warren Andrews served Mr. Reed as best man, and seating the guests were Donald Mille and Jerry Snyder.

Soroptimist Hears Reports

The monthly dinner-meeting of Soroptimist International of Lin-coln was held Wednesday eve-ning at the Hotel Cornhusker when reports on the northcentral regional conference, held last week at St. Paul, Minn., were given by Mrs. E. W. Johnson, president, and Mrs. Jo Jensen Bonebright.

The program of colored slides, "Our Paths Crossed in Europe", was given by Dr. Florence Mc-Kinney and Mrs. Helen Calca-terra, who exhibited many ar-ticles they brought back from their travels in Europe last sum-mer.

In charge of dinner arrange-ments were Mrs. Harriet Price, Miss Selma B. Anderson and Mrs. Fred J. Kundert.

To Head Nebraska AAUW

MISS LENORE P. RAMSEY

Miss Lenore P. Ramsey of Wayne was nominated president of the Nebraska Division of the American Association of Uni-versity Women on Friday at the first-day session of the organiza-tion's annual convention being held at Norfolk.

Other candidates for office, to be formally elected and in-stalled on Saturday, are Dr. Le-na Mae Faylor of Kearney, first vice president, and Miss Lu-cille Ledwith of Lincoln, record-ing secretary. The nominating committee report was given by Mrs. E. W. Orme of Lincoln, chairman.

Those continuing in office for another year are Mrs. Charles Dunn, Fremont, second vice president; Mrs. E. F. Benda,

DR. LEONA MAE FAYLOR

Scottsbluff, corresponding secre-tary; and Miss Alma Ashley, Peru, treasurer.

Presentation was made of the annual membership scholarships to the following students in Ne-braska colleges: Doane College, Miss Judith Huffman; Kearney State Teachers College, Miss Mary Alexander; Wayne State Teachers College, Miss LaJean Larson; Nebraska Wesleyan Uni-versity, Miss Faye Martens; Uni-versity of Nebraska, Miss Gail Katskee; University of Omaha, Miss Marianne Bowley and Mid-land College, Miss Neva White.

Mrs. Arthur Schultze of Cozad, state fellowship chairman, re-ported that AAUW members in the Nebraska Division last year gave $2,169.18 to the organi-zation's scholarships and fellow-ship funds. The Lexington branch donated $3.70 per member, the highest per capita contribution of the 19 state branches.

Addressing the state board members, chairmen and branch presidents at the pre-convention meeting on Thursday evening, Dr. Pearl Hogrefe of Ames, Ia., professor of English at Iowa State College, told the group that "true creation develops per-sonality and assists a woman in her adjustment to better living."

TOWN TALK

WE CAN'T say that April is mak-ing her exit with any degree of good humor—or even common courtesy, for that matter—Who ever heard of spending a whole month among people who gave you a hearty welcome, and then leaving in a tantrum—Oh well, another month is on its way with greener grass, bright-er flowers and, we hope, nicer weather.

But April has had its good points—It has been an excep-tionally busy month as far as May and June brides are con-cerned, but judging from the calendar May will take over the brides-elect in no uncertain terms.

AND speaking of May brides—this morning Miss Dinny Weiss, whose marriage to Lt. Jack Gordon will be solemnized on May 26, makes announcement of the bridal party. Only the members of the families will attend the ceremony, and we are told that Miss Weiss will have but one attendant, Miss Janice Carman of Omaha. Da-vid Michel Weiss of Las Vegas, Nev., brother of the bride, will serve Lt. Gordon as best man.

THESE are busy days for an-other bride-elect, Miss Sandra Burnett, whose marriage to Robert Miller is planned for May 20.

Last Saturday Miss Burnett was an honoree when Mrs. Lud-wig Rosenberg and her daugh-ter, Miss Hannah Rosenberg, were luncheon hostesses at their home. The soon-to-be bride was presented with a hostess gift.

AND last evening Miss Burnett shared honors with her fiance when her brother-in-law and sis-ter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall were host and hostess at an hors d'oeuvres part at their home between the hours of 6 o'clock and 8 o'clock.

THIS morning Mrs. Fred Morgan will pay prenuptial courtesy to Miss Burnett when she is host-ess at a 10:30 o'clock coffee at her home. Eighteen guests have been invited, and the soon-to-be bride will be presented with a hostess gift.

ONE OF our June brides—Miss Marolyn Hicks, whose mar-riage to Lloyd Reed will be solemnized at the First Pres-byterian Church on June 17, was complimented on Thursday evening when Mrs. A. T. Kors-meyer entertained at a dessert supper at her home. The guest list included a small group of friends of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Clifford Hicks.

THEN there is news of a party for Miss Cynthia Henderson who is to marry Warren Burt on June 8.

A week from Sunday, May 6, Miss Henderson will be the incentive for a brunch when Miss Marilyn Toft, Kappa Kappa Gamma sister of the bride-elect, entertains at her home in Omaha. The guests, all sorority sisters of the bride-to-be and her hostess, have been invited for 11 o'clock. Miss Henderson will be presented with a pottery shower.

BUT leaving the brides-elect for the nonce we open the book on bridge and find that when the Hillcrest ladies held their first bridge day of the season last Tuesday, high score was made by Mrs. Mary Puritt. Mrs. Esther Hartman took sec-ond honors, and Mrs. Harry Spencer received a gift certifi-cate. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Chan Tyrrell and Mrs. Richard Lutz.

JUST can't stay away from the attractive brides-elect—Just now heard that Miss Pat Halvorsen, whose marriage to Norman Watkins will be solemnized on June 16, is to be honored on Sunday when Delta Gamma sisters, Miss Nancy Coulter of Bridgeport; Miss Flossy Haslam of Fremont, and Miss Helen Herrmann of McCook, will be hostesses at a dessert luncheon on Sunday at Hotel Cornhusker.

BSP To Mark Anniversary

When the members of Beta Sigma Phi business girls sorority celebrate the Silver Anniversary of the national organization and the founding of the first chapter in Lincoln, on Monday evening at the Hotel Cornhusker, 25-year members of Beta Sigma Phi will be especially honored.

Also guests will be Miss Amy Wykes of Kansas City, Mo., who will be banquet speaker, Mrs. W. L. Day, an honorary member and sponsor of the Lincoln groups, and Miss Madeline Gir-ard, sponsor for the sorority's city council. Also attending will be sorority members from Fair-bury, York and Nebraska City.

Twenty-five year members in-clude Miss Mildred Burris, Mrs. H. E. Crawford, Miss Helen Dudgeon, Miss Florence Frost, Mrs. William S. Jacobs, Mrs. Myron E. Julian, Miss Cora Knott, Mrs. H. C. Pratt, Mrs.

First we learned that Capt., and Mrs. Paul Ecelbarger have house guests—Their week-end visitors include Capt. Ecelbarger's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Webber of Big Run, Pa., and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Russell of Ft. Worth, Tex. Mr. and Mrs. Webber and Mr. and Mrs. Russell plan to leave on Monday to return to their homes.

And speaking of guests—heard that Lt. and Mrs. Robert Mor-rison and their family have had as their guests Mrs. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hostetter, who left earlier this week to return to their home in Great Bend, Kan.

But there have been other guests at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Morrison—Lt. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mor-rison and their son, Earlis, were here from Dodge City, Kan., and also visiting the Morrisons

MISS GEORGIA BENES who will become the bride of Milton Bell this morning at St. Patrick's Church.

Former Coeds Are April Brides

For the wedding of Miss Georgia Benes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benes of Waverly, and Milton Bell of Worces-ter, Mass., which will be an event of 9 o'clock this morning, the altar and chancel of St. Pat-rick's Church were arranged with spreading fans of pink and white gladioli, snapdragons and Ma-jestic daisies. The ceremony will be solemnized by the Rev. Norbert Schmalz, and Mrs. Robert Studnicka, organist, will play the wedding music. Mrs. Studnicka also will accompany John Mo-ran, the vocal soloist.

Bouffant frocks of pink chiffon over taffeta have been chosen for the attendants who are Mrs. Wesely, her sister's matron of honor; Miss Dorothy Vestecka, Miss Marlene Lucas, Mrs. Victor Benes and Miss Eleanor Benes, the bridesmaids. With their cos-tumes, fashioned with fitted bodices and wide, ballerina skirts of chiffon over tulle over taffeta, the attendants will wear picture hats in matching tone. Their colonial bouquets will be of pink carnations and red roses. Cor-inne Benes is the flower girl, and Rodney Wesely will carry the ring.

White tulle, embroidered in a floral motif, over flesh-toned taf-feta will be worn by the bride. The moulded basque bodice is fashioned with a deep shell neck-line and brief sleeves, their length replaced with mits of em-broidered tulle. The voluminous

MRS. DONALD W. REED

Former Coeds Are April Brides

One hundred and fifty invita-tions were issued for the wed-ding of Miss Dorothy Gene Mille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Mille, and Donald W. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Har-old G. Reed, which took place at an 8 o'clock ceremony on Friday evening, April 27, at the Grace Methodist Church. Dr. Harold Sandall read the service before a background of pink and white gladioli, and lighted candles in seven-branched can-delabra. Mrs. Eugene Ludwick, organist, played the wedding music and also accompanied Jerry Miller, the vocal soloist.

Pastel-toned batiste fashioned the daytime-length frocks of the attendants including Mrs. Rich-ard Deems of Alvo, who was her sister's matron of honor, and who appeared in the green shade; Mrs. Robert Finley, in pink, and Mrs. E. E. Jacobs, in yellow, the bridesmaids. Small hats and dusters, reflecting the tones of their frocks, completed their ensembles, and each carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Following a reception for the wedding guests, held in the church parlors, Mr. Reed and his bride left for a short honey-moon trip. Upon their return they will reside at 1746 Washing-ton St. For traveling Mrs. Reed wore a black and white sleeve-less frock, with a black, white-trimmed duster.

Mrs. Reed is a former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

The Friendship Club met Friday afternoon for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Donald Venter. Following the business meeting, there was a program of games and prizes were won by Mrs. D. T. Venter and Mrs. W. T. Wilkins.

We Hear That

Coming from Detroit, Mich., to attend the wedding of Miss Marian Kuta and Lt. Robert Predmesky, which will be solemnized this morn-ing, were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John Predmesky; his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Predmesky, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Friewald and their two sons, Carl and Richard.

Word has been received in Lincoln of the birth of a daughter, Robin Kim, to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bergersen of Omaha on Friday, April 6. The couple formerly resided in Lincoln where Mr. Bergersen completed graduate work at the University of Nebraska.

Crabs In Full Bloom

The Hopa Crab tree pilgrimage, which occurs every other year, is scheduled to put in an appearance soon on West Pershing Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnett Folsom of 3315 West Pershing Rd. are the owners of several beautiful Hopa Crab trees, which are now in bloom. As in years past, it is expected that hundreds of Lincolinites will direct their car outings past this lovely scene.

Park Manor has been gay and festive these past few days and judging from what we gleaned on a tour of the neigh-borhood, the activity will con-tinue. There are guests, parties, bridge clubs in the news of Park Manor this morning, and we'd best begin the telling of it—

First we learned that Capt., and Mrs. Paul Ecelbarger have house guests—Their week-end visitors include Capt. Ecelbarger's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Webber of Big Run, Pa., and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Russell of Ft. Worth, Tex. Mr. and Mrs. Webber and Mr. and Mrs. Russell plan to leave on Monday to return to their homes.

And speaking of guests—heard that Lt. and Mrs. Robert Mor-rison and their family have had as their guests Mrs. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hostetter, who left earlier this week to return to their home in Great Bend, Kan.

But there have been other guests at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Morrison—Lt. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mor-rison and their son, Earlis, were here from Dodge City, Kan., and also visiting the Morrisons were Mr. and Mrs. Ronnel Bum-bardier of Great Bend, Kan.

Neighborhood coffees always are festive and fun affairs—and last Wednesday morning Mrs. Donald Yates entertained a group of her neighbors at a coffee at her home—And also on hand to share in the festivities—not the coffee—were the pre-school children of the guests.

And this morning Mrs. Everett W. Terry, and Mrs. L. A. Rose-ling will be coffee hostesses at the home of Mrs. Terry when they pay courtesy to Mrs. R. Middleton whose marriage to Lt. Middleton took place last week-end in Topeka, Kan. Guests at the informal party were Mrs. H. H. Kennedy, Mrs. J. H. Mann, Mrs. F. H. Hil-don and Mrs. F. H. Morrison.

Understand that Mrs. Walter Starck was hostess at her home on Thursday afternoon when she entertained a guest eightsome at a dessert luncheon. Following luncheon the time was devoted to bridge.

On next week's calendar is the dessert luncheon for which Mrs. J. H. Mann will be hostess at her home on Thursday when she entertains the members of her bridge club.

MISS MARIAN KUTA whose marriage to Lt. Robert Predmesky will be solemnized this morning at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Arrangements of gladioli, in the orchid tone, and white snapdragons will form the background for the wedding of Miss Marian Kuta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kuta of Hotchkiss, Colo., and Lt. Robert Predmesky, son of Mrs. John Predmesky of Detroit, Mich., and the late Mr. Predmesky, which will take place at a 10 o'clock ceremony this morning at St. Mary's Cathedral. The Rev. John Flynn will solemnize the service and Miss Catherine Gillespie, organist, will play the wedding music and accompany the vocal soloist, John Moran.

Miss Dodie Kuta of Kankakee, Ill., as her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Colus of Loup City, and Miss LaRee Sullivan, will wear like frocks of nylon in the orchid shade. The tucked bodices, designed with squared necklines, are snugly fitted above the accordion pleated skirts. The slender waists are widely sashed with deep purple ribbon, and the purple is repeated in the clusters of violets that dot their halo berets. Each will carry a colonial bouquet of orchid carnations.

John E. Predmesky of Detroit

MISS MARILYN JEAN SHOULTZ, who will become the bride of Robert Glade of Lincoln on Saturday morning, April 28.

White and pink snapdragons and gladioli arranged against a background of huckleberry foliage will form the setting for the wedding of Miss Marilyn Jean Shoultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Shoultz of Schuyler, to Robert Glade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Glade of Lincoln. The 10 o'clock ceremony will be solemnized by the Rev. C. J. Neckels at St. Augustine Church in Schuyler, and Mrs. Harry H. Verling, organist, will play the wedding music and accompany the church choir.

Wearing a sheath frock of frosted white lace over pink taffeta accented at the back by a draped bow of the taffeta will be the maid of honor, Miss Theresa Walz of Battle Creek. She will complete her costume with a pink-flowered cap and will carry a bouquet of white daisies and pompons. Frosted identically in frosted lace over green taffeta will be the bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Glade of Lincoln, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William Evans of Des Moines, Ia. The flower girl will be Miss Liza Schmidt of Rising City, and Kenneth Williams of Lincoln will carry the rings.

Jerome Glade of Lincoln will serve his brother as best man, and seating the guests will be Charles Glade of Biloxi, Miss., also a brother of the bridegroom, and William Shoultz of Schuyler, the bride's brother.

White Schiffli embroidered nylon tulle over satin fashioned the bride's gown. The snugly shirred bodice was designed with a portrait neckline and brief sleeves, which were completed by long mitts of tulle, and emphasizing the hem-line width of the full skirt was a deep flounce of ruffled tulle. A cap of sequin-trimmed lace and tulle held her veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade of small pink roses.

A reception and buffet luncheon for 300 guests were held following the ceremony. Upon their return from a trip to southwest states, Mr. Glade and his bride will reside at 2001 So. 14th, in Lincoln.

The bride is a graduate of St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing.

MRS. RONALD M. SCHAFER

At a candlelight ceremony solemnized Friday evening, April 27, Miss Janet Ruth Millington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Millington of Raymond, became the bride of Ronald M. Schaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaffer, also of Raymond. Lighted candles, and arrangements of greenery and pink gladioli appointed the chancel of the Fourth Presbyterian Church in Lincoln for the service, which was read by the Rev. Harold L. Wilson, and Mrs. William Hellerich, organist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Hellerich also accompanied Mr. Hellerich, the vocal soloist.

Wearing alike frocks of blue net over taffeta were Mrs. Kenneth McKee, as the matron of honor, Mrs. William Chastain and Mrs. Robert Schaffer, bridesmaids, and Miss Evonda Schaffer, cousin of the bridegroom, as junior bridesmaid. Peter Pan collars accented the snug bodices, and the full skirts were ballerina length. They carried bouquets of feathered carnations in the coral shade and wore headresses of frock-toned net. Miss Karen Weers was the flower girl, and ring bearer was Bobby Morton.

Lighting the candles for the 7:30 o'clock service were Miss Judy Koontz, cousin of the bride, and Miss Katherine Schaffer, cousin of the bridegroom.

Serving as best man was John E. Millington, cousin of the bride, and the ushers were Donald Hicken, Charles Olson and Robert Ely.

The bride's gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle was fashioned in the colonial mode. An insertion of shirred tulle banded the bodice of lace, which was designed with a small, turned-down collar and long, tapered sleeves, and alternate bands of lace and shirred tulle formed the very full skirt. Her illusion veil was held by a coronet of tulle ruching dotted with pearls, and she carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid and showered with tiny pink rosebuds.

Following the reception for 300 guests in the parlors of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to Colorado.

Will Honor House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Merle White will be host and hostess at their home Sunday afternoon at an open house honoring Lt. and Mrs. Richard Bauermeister who are back from Anchorage, Alaska, where Lt. Bauermeister was stationed with the Armed Forces.

Lt. and Mrs. Bauermeister, who will be remembered as the former Anne White, will spend the week end in Lincoln as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. White.

Friends are asked to call at the White home Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock without further invitation.

Attending her sister as maid of honor will be Miss Joyce Siverson, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Jeanette Boyko of Ruso, N. D., sister of Mr. Boyko, and Miss Ruth Pearson. Miss Gayle Herr will be her aunt's flower girl, and carrying the Bible will be Terry Zabotney, nephew of the bridegroom-elect.

Donald Boyko will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Maynard Boyko, also a brother of Mr. Boyko, and Robert Cahane.

The bride-elect is a former student at Union College in Lincoln.

Miss Madeline Gourlay has announced the members of her bridal party for her marriage to Richard Rice, which will be solemnized on Saturday, May 12. The wedding will take place at high noon at Blessed Sacrament Church.

The maid of honor will be Miss Helen Gourlay, sister of the bride-to-be, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Frances Gourlay, Miss Mary Rice, sister of Miss Gourlay's fiance, and Miss Carol Unterscher.

Serving as best man will be Robert Bagby of Wichita, Kan., and the corps of ushers will include John Gourlay, brother of the bride-elect, Robert Malone, Philip Ewen and Lt. George Hyland.

The bride-to-be was the honored guest recently when Mrs. Thomas Witte and Miss Nancy Hegstrom entertained at a shower held at the home of Mrs. Witte. The guests included the faculty of Park School where Miss Gourlay is a member of the teaching staff.

Miss Gourlay and her fiance also were honored recently at a dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Malone were host and hostess at their home.

A May bride-elect is Miss Marilyn Joyce Barry whose marriage to James Noonan will take place on Saturday morning, May 5. The 9 o'clock ceremony will be solemnized at Sacred Heart Church.

For her maid of honor, Miss Barry has chosen Miss Mary Dee Patterson, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Vivian Noonan, sister of Mr. Noonan, Miss Sharon Davis and Miss Sandra Davison.

Serving his brother as best man will be Gene Noonan, and the ushers will be Ron Watson, Owen Bolton and James Brace- len.

Included among recent courtesies honoring the bride-elect were the dessert luncheon and shower for which Mrs. Noonan's mother and sister, Mrs. Michael Noonan and Miss Vivian Noonan, were hostesses at the Noonan home, and the personal shower and dessert supper held at the home of Miss Sharon Davis with Miss Sandra Davison as co-hostess.

Announcing plans for a June wedding this morning is Miss Katherine Johns who has chosen June 24 as the date for her marriage to Richard Eugene Wagner. The ceremony will be solemnized at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Charles Jetton will attend her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. DeVon Stewart and Mrs. Jack Sronce. Miss Marilyn Burbach and Miss Rachel Borchers will be the bridesmaids, and Miss Patty Goss, niece of the bride-elect, will be flower girl.

Lighting the candles for the service will be Miss Sharon Davis and Miss Judy Wagner of National City, Calif., cousin of Mr. Wagner.

Serving his brother as best man will be Kenneth Wagner, and seating the guests will be Robert Rockenbach, Irvin Maahs, Stanley Manske and Wesley Johns, brother of the bride-to-be.

Completing plans for an early June wedding is Miss Gloria Marie Adelson who will become the bride of Carl L. Christiansen on Sunday, June 10. The ceremony will be solemnized at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Polk.

Miss Adelson has named Miss Carmen Strand of Polk as her maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be her cousin, Miss Sharon Adelson of Polk, and Miss Vivian Riley of Hickman. Miss Connie Larson of Whittier, Calif., will be the flower girl, and ring-bearer will be Dennis Stege of Hickman.

Serving his brother as best man will be Edward Christiansen of Hickman.

Each will carry a colonial bouquet of orchid carnations.

John E. Predmesky of Detroit will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Lt. Frank Eisenbraun of Tripp, S. D., and Lt. Jack Andrews.

The bride will appear in a gown of white tulle patterned with lace. The smoothly sculptured bodice is designed with a portrait neckline contoured with a bertha of tulle and lace that drops from the shoulders to form brief sleeves. Lace applique bands the extremely bouffant skirt of tulle which is completed with a deep tulle flounce. Her tiered veil is held to the head with a halo brim of pearl-dotted lace, and she will carry a white prayer book marked with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for only the members of the bridal party and the families will be served at Cotner Terrace where, later, the reception of 150 guests also will be held.

Lt. Predmesky and his bride will reside at 1135 So. 15th St. after their return from a honeymoon trip to New Orleans, and points of interest in Florida. For traveling the bride will wear a navy and white sheath frock, with navy topper.

MISS MARILYN JEAN SHOULTZ, who will become the bride of Robert Glade of Lincoln on Saturday morning, April 28.

White and pink snapdragons and gladioli arranged against a background of huckleberry foliage will form the setting Saturday morning, April 28, for the marriage of Miss Marilyn Jean Shoultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Shoultz of Schuyler, to Robert Glade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. United Steel Workers Prepare To Seek High-Priced Contract Improvements

PITTSBURGH — The United Steel Workers, preparing to seek a wage increase and other high-priced contract improvements for workers, Friday disclosed it has sent formal requests to 172 steel companies for negotiations on a new labor agreement.

The formal notices—containing no reference to actual demands—were mailed earlier this week over the signature of USW President David J. McDonald. No date was set for the talks to begin.

U.S. Steel Corp., the world's biggest producer and traditionally the first company to sit down at the bargaining table with the union, said it has received its notice.

Talks will not get under way until after the powerful 170-member Wage Policy Committee of the union formalizes the demands. That committee is scheduled to meet in Pittsburgh May 14 and 15.

Spelled Out

But McDonald and other union officials already have spelled out pretty clearly in speeches just what the union wants from an industry that is constantly setting new production records and enjoying record profits.

The union demands include a supplemental unemployment benefit program, time and a half pay for Saturday work and double time for Sunday work, a wage increase and improved insurance benefits.

Iron Age, the national metal working weekly, said the steel companies "will have a hard time holding the settlement to a package of 17 to 18 cents an hour."

The current contract expires June 30. The union will be free to strike then if agreement is not reached. The negotiations will cover some 600,000 of the union's 1.2-million members. Talks with steel fabricating companies, employing the remainder of the union membership will come later this year.

$1.54 An Hour

Steelworkers' wages now range from a low of $1.07 to $1.54 an hour. The union won a 15-cent hourly wage increase last year after a 12-hour strike.

Both steel officials and union leaders say they do not expect a strike this year. The industry already is swamped with orders that have formed into a big backlog despite months of near capacity operations.

In annual reports, 32 basic steel companies, which make 96.64 per cent of the nation's steel, reported for the first time in history combined earnings of over a billion dollars.

Any wage increase given the steel industry can be expected to be met by an increase in the price of steel.

Polish Bishop Said Returned To Prison

VIENNA, Austria — Mgr. Czeslaw Kaczmarek, Roman Catholic bishop, is reported imprisoned again by Polish authorities, the Vienna Catholic news service, Katpress said.

Bishop Kaczmarek, arrested in 1952 on a charge of spying for the United States, was sentenced to 12 years.

When his health became bad last year he was released and confined in a Polish monastery, but he has been jailed again.

Ounce Of Prevention Results In Bruises

Harold G. Kruger, 17, of 2230 So. 9th tried to avoid a car pulling from a curb Friday and wound up in a hospital with bruises on his right leg and arm.

Kruger, riding a motorcycle, told police he swerved while riding on 24th St. between M and L Sts. He was treated and released.

Plans Altered

FORMENTOR, Balearic Islands. — High seas and strong winds forced Prince Rainier III of Monaco and his bride to spend Friday in the harbor here.

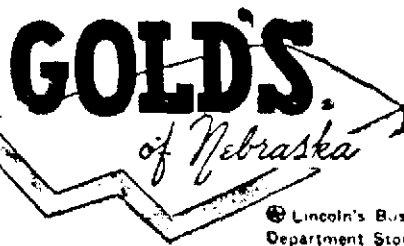

Rainier and his princess, the former Grace Kelly, left early Friday aboard their yacht for Palma, capital of this Spanish Mediterranean island of Mallorca.

The winds forced the honeymooning couple to return shortly after noon.

A-Tanker Request Is Tripped

House Unit Disallows Ike's Ship Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee Friday disallowed, for the time being at least, an administration request for funds to build an atomic-powered tanker and two other experimental merchant ships.

The committee withheld the 40 million dollars requested for the three ships "pending further advice and consultation" with the House Merchant Marine Committee, which has questioned the Maritime Administration's authority to build the vessels.

The funds disapproved were part of the billion and a half budget requested by President Eisenhower for the Commerce Department and related agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1. The Appropriations Committee trimmed the total down to $1,382,003,000, a proposed reduction of $140,670,000.

Biggest cuts were 98 million of the 295 million requested for maritime activities and 25 million in the 300 million sought for federal highway work.

Merchant Marine

The $196,347,000 voted for maritime activities included 2 1/2 million for converting two merchant-type merchant ships for the American President Lines and 40 million for merchant fleet replacement.

The committee said the 775 million approved for highway work would take care of last year's obligations as well as major commitments for this year.

Other allotments included 196 million for the Civil Aeronautics Administration; 38 million for the Weather Bureau, including an extra million for hurricane and tornado research; and a million dollars to the Census Bureau for a national housing survey.

The Census Bureau also was voted 1 1/4 million for a census of state and local government units and their employees.

Two New Priests To Be Ordained For Local Diocese

Two new priests for the Diocese of Lincoln will be ordained Tuesday.

The Rev. Edward A. O'Leary, 24, of Chicago will be ordained in Joliet, Ill., and the Rev. Robert H. Smith, 38, of Zealring, Iowa, will be ordained in Sumner, Iowa. Fr. O'Leary will offer his first solemn Mass in Chicago May 6 and Fr. Smith will offer his first solemn Mass May 4 in Sumner.

They will later be assigned posts in the Lincoln diocese.

Catholic Women's Leader To Attend Lincoln Convention

Mrs. August Desch of Evanston, Ill., president of the National Council of Catholic Women, will attend the silver jubilee convention of the Lincoln Diocesan Council of Catholic Women in Lincoln Wednesday.

A business meeting and election of directors at large is on the agenda. A "Safety Skit" under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth F. Dodge, president of the Lincoln Deanery, will be presented.

High Court Hands Down 4 Decisions

The State Supreme Court Friday handed down decisions in the following cases:

Lancaster county—Jacob W. Fitts, applicant, vs. Russell E. Bondt and others; verdict for defendants in personal injury suit upheld.

Custer county—John L. Hinesley, administrator of estate of Caroline E. Hinesley, applicant, vs. State Highway; dismissal by trial court upheld.

Dakota county—Burke Lumber & Coal Co. vs. Edith Anderson and Robert Hankins; action in foreclosure of mechanic's lien, affirmed in part and reversed in part and remanded with directions.

Harlan county—Estate of Daniel McCleery, Hope Supp. applicant, vs. Ruth McCleery Allard; dismissal of claim upheld.

PANEL 1: A woman with blonde, curly hair enters a room, looking surprised. She is wearing a light-colored dress. A man with dark, wavy hair is looking at her. A speech bubble from the woman says: "JULIE—GUESS WHO'S OUTSIDE. BUT YOU'D NEVER! IT'S DORIS PARNELL—YOU KNOW, THE ONE WHO WRITES THAT SYNDICATED FASHION COLUMN!"

PANEL 2: The woman is in the foreground, looking down with a serious expression. The man is in the background, looking surprised. A speech bubble from the man says: "SHE'S HERE?" Another speech bubble from the woman says: "RIGHT OUT IN THE FOYER. NO LESS!!"

PANEL 3: The man is in the foreground, looking distressed with his hands on his head. A speech bubble from him says: "MY ONLY REGRET—IS THAT I'M NOT THERE TO SEE IT HAPPEN!!"

You Drive!

Keep alert—chew gum

Avoid traffic jitters and driving drowsiness. Chew gum while you're behind the wheel. Chewing helps relieve strain and tension—helps keep you feeling fresh and alert for safer driving.

Links Win In Public Schools Carnival

By RON SPEER

Star Sports Staff Member

The chilling winds didn't dampen the spirits of Capital City athletes in the Lincoln Public Schools track meet at Wesleyan Friday night.

Shotputters, halfmilers and mileers highlighted the well-run carnival which was won by Lincoln High with 117½ points. Northeast took runnerup honors with 77 points, and Southeast trailed with 10½.

Three weightmen heaved the shot over 50 feet — one of few times such a finish has occurred in a Nebraska prep meet—with Northeast's Gene Dittenber winning with a 50-4½ mark.

Teammate Don Nelson trailed by only half an inch, and Link Gus Talaz was third with 50-3.

The match in the mile between

Rocket George Rolofson and Lincoln High's George Porter was a crowd pleaser. Porter took an early lead but Rolofson powered past him shortly after the quarter mile mark.

Porter made a final bid on the last curve but the strong Rolofson displayed a terrific finishing kick and won by 12 yards. Rolofson was clocked in 4:47.7, a new meet record.

Rocket Gary Larsen pulled the upset of the meet by outdistancing Dean Sell of Lincoln High in the half mile. Larsen trailed Sell most of the race but started sprinting with 150 yards to the tape and overtook the powerful Link runner less than 20 yards from the finish.

Larsen's time of 2:09.9 shattered the old meet record by nearly five seconds and is the best half-mile clocking for a Lincoln prep runner this spring. The crowd of nearly 400 cheered Lincoln High's Bill Swanson to a fine 11-8½ mark in the pole vault. Swanson is only a junior. His vault Friday night was the best he has ever registered.

Ron Galois, chunky Lincoln High sprinter, was individual point winner. He slammed the dashes and won the broad jump, besides anchoring the winning 880-yard relay team, for 16½ points.

His clockings of 10:2 in the 100 and 22:8 in the 220 are the best for local runners this year. Galois was aided by a slight wind, however.

Jim Fox, Northeast high jumper, also established a new meet mark. He leaped 5-8½ to better the high jump record.

Wesleyan track coach Woody Greeno had the Plainsmen oval in top condition for the meet, and directed the affair in a capable manner. Every event was started on schedule.

Hogan Halts Retirement Talk, Makes Open Entry

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK — Ben Hogan ended retirement talk Friday and took aim at the one great objective that has eluded him in an illustrious golfing career—his fifth U. S. Open championship.

Hogan's entry for the 1956 Open championship at Rochester, N.Y., June 14-16 reached U. S. Golf Assn. headquarters Friday, ending speculation that began after he lost to Jack Fleck in a playoff for the 1955 Open title and indicated that he never would make another serious bid.

His entry doesn't necessarily mean that the only active four-time champion will make a major effort, or even that he'll play in the tournament. But only once in the past has he sent in an entry when he didn't expect to be a real contender.

Near-Fatal Accident

That was in 1949 when he was recovering from a near-fatal automobile injury. Ben filed his entry then, but asked USGA officials to keep it secret until he learned whether he would be able to play. He couldn't, but he came back to win the next year.

In his bitter disappointment over his defeat by Fleck, which cost him a chance to become the only five-time Open champion, Hogan said last June that he'd never again try as hard to win the Open. But he didn't entirely rule out playing in the tournament.

Before the playoff, Hogan said he would become just a weekend golfer if he won. He already shared with Willie Anderson and Bobby Jones the distinction of winning four times and a fifth would have given him a unique position in golf.

Afterwards he wearily said: "I don't know. I'll never train as hard again as I did for this one. This is not discouragement talking. It's too tough. I can't do it any more. I'm going to play for fun after this."

Hogan has played in only a few tournaments each season for the past few years. Early this month at the Masters tournament, in which he tied for eighth place after shooting a 69 on the first round, he still wouldn't commit himself.

"I have no plans to play or not to play," he said then. He hinted that he might show up at Rochester only in connection with his business as a golf club manufacturer.

NWU Tennis, Golf Teams Tip Hastings

Nebraska Wesleyan's golf and tennis teams took the measure of Hastings College Friday. The Plainsmen tennis beat Hastings 5-2 and the golfers scored their second win of the season, 10-2.

Bill Hill, Wesleyan's number one tennis player, came from behind to beat Hastings' Dick Wintermude. Elroy Nelson of Wesleyan was medalist in the golf match with an 83 at Pi-onneers.

Long, Steffen Pace Rockets

Ron Long and Duane Steffen sparked the Northeast High baseball team to a 6-5 win over Boys Town Friday on the Rocket diamond.

Long cracked two doubles, scored two runs and batted in one run, and helped Northeast starting pitcher Don Wenzl out of a fourth-inning jam when he turned a sharp grounder to third base into a double play.

Steffen relieved Wenzl in the sixth inning when Boys Town had the tying runs on base. Steffen curve-balled his way through the final two innings to save the win for Wenzl.

Boys Town starter Dan Crow was sailing along with a 2-1 lead going into the fourth inning. He walked two batters and then was struck on the right hand by a line drive off the bat of Jack Fager.

Crow threw out Fager but left the game in favor of Delton Straumann. Four Northeast runs scored in the inning as Long belted his second double and Rudy Stoehr hit a two-run single.

Mayor Asks For Group To Rewrite City Charter

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer
Appointment of a 15 member group to completely rewrite Lincoln's city charter has been proposed by Mayor Clark Jeary to facilitate, among other things, the consolidation of various city and county governmental operations.

Jeary's proposal was made in a letter to County Commissioner Del Liemann. Liemann had written to Jeary suggesting that the city was dragging its feet in consolidation matters.

Liemann had stated that consolidation of city and county departments would save some $35,000 according to a citizens committee report. No reason has been presented, Liemann said, to show why the city tax assessing cannot be "eliminated entirely and save the city taxpayers $10,500."

THE LINCOLN STAR 15 Saturday, April 28, 1956

Notice to Contractors
Sealed proposals will be opened by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, at the office of the City Engineer, at 10 o'clock a.m., on Wednesday, May 3, 1956, for the construction of the water main in Ward No. 4, from 6th Street to 7th Street, and from 7th Street to 8th Street, and from 8th Street to 9th Street, in said City, according to the plans and specifications of the City Engineer on file in the office of the City Engineer. Plans and specifications may be seen and the originals obtained in the office of the City Engineer.
The City Engineer's estimate of the cost of these water mains is $12,000.00. Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check for $500.00, payable to Frank J. Miller, City Treasurer, as a guarantee of good faith.
The City reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any defect in proposals.
THEO. H. BERG, City Clerk.

Hogs Hold Steady On Light Receipts

OMAHA — Light receipts shaped a steady Omaha hog market Friday. Sows were up as much as 25 cents. Cattle receipts were too small to provide an adequate test of prices. Fat lamb prices were nominally steady.

Hog: Salable Friday 3,500; market steady to strong on butchers; sows steady to 25c higher; butchers 190-240 lbs. $15.00 to $15.25; mostly mixed U. S. No. 1-2 grades, mixed and 2-3 $15.00 to $15.25; 300 head at $15.75; 240-270 lbs. mostly mixed and 2-3 $15.00 to $15.25; sows 300-550 lbs. $11.75 to $14.00.

Cattle: Salable 400; calves 25; insufficient to make a fair test of the market; cows mostly steady; utility and commercial cows $10.75 to $12.00; canners and cutters $9.50 to $10.50.

Sheep: Salable 200; nothing of consequence to establish a price trend; a few small lots native spring lambs around $9.00 to $10.00; wool choice wooled slaughter lambs $21.50.

Butcher: hogs steady to as much as 50 cents lower Friday, the sharpest decline being shown at the close. Salable receipts totaled 1,300.

Butchers: scaling 200 to 270 pounds sold early at $15.00 to $15.35, but at the close were going mostly at $14.75 to $15.00.

Sows: were down with butchers, selling in an $11.00 to $12.75 range.

Only 500 head were on sale in the cattle section, including very few steers and heifers. These were called nominally steady. A few good and choice steers sold at $17.00 to $20.00, the top.

Cows: steady to weak at $11.25 to $12.50 for utility and commercial and $9.50 to $12.00 for canners and cutters. A few high commercial young cows brought up to $14.00.

Vealers: were steady to weak. A few prime vealers hit $20.00. Most good and choice kinds sold at $21.00 to $25.00. Salable sheep totaled 200. Lambs were nominally steady. A few head of choice 100 pound spring lambs sold at $22.50.

ST. JOSEPH
Hog: 1,500; butchers steady to 25c higher; mixed lots U. S. No. 1-3 190-240 lbs. $15.25 to $15.50; 300 head 15.75 to $16.00; 240-270 lbs. $15.00 to $15.25; sows 300-550 lbs. $11.75 to $14.00.

Cattle: 300; calves 50. Sheep: 200.

Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK (AP)—

Stocks—Higher; trading expands on rise.

Bonds—Mixed; trading quiet.

Cotton—Steady; trade buying.

CHICAGO:—

Wheat—Easy; sold off at finish.

Corn—Mixed; old crop steady new week.

Hogs—Steady to 50 cents lower; top $15.50.

Cattle—Steers, heifers nominally steady; top $20.00.

Strong Oil Shares Head Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—Strong oil shares featured a substantially higher stock market Friday.

The rise was accomplished on expanded volume, and there was a bullish air about proceedings.

Volume came to 2,700,000 shares, compared with 2,650,000 trading Thursday. Gains of 13 to 15 cents were found in key places and many stocks were up 10 to 20 cents. The industrial component advanced 1.5 to 2 percent, while the railroad, chemical, aircraft, rubber and other divisions including meat packers.

Although trading was really depressed, both the market and the stocks suffered from late profit taking. Stockholders gave notice they would demand higher wages in a new agreement.

Corporate reports of high profits and sales continued to sweeten the market and stocks responded readily.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks went up $1.40, best rise in more than a month. The industrial component advanced $3.10, railroads were up 40 cents at a new high since 1929 of $151.40 and utilities were unchanged.

The American Stock Exchange was higher on volume of 1,300,000 shares, compared with 1,430,000 Thursday.

Parker Murder Trial Nears Finish

State Rests Its Rebuttal Case; Final Arguments Monday

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The last fragments of testimony on which a Lancaster District Court will decide the guilt or innocence of Darrel F. Parker were read Friday into the record of his first-degree murder trial.

At 11:33 a.m. Friday, the state rested its rebuttal case and the defense waived any sur-rebuttal in the trial of the 24-year-old former charged with strangling his 22-year-old wife, Nancy, on Dec. 13 at their Antelope Park home.

Trial Judge John L. Polk overruled a routine defense motion to dismiss the case for lack of evidence and lack of a fair trial, and then recessed the court for the week end.

Final arguments of attorneys before the seven-man and five-woman jury will get under way at 9 a.m., Monday — first day of the trial's fourth week.

Instructions to Jury

The court will follow with instructions to the jurors and the case will finally be submitted for decision.

If closing arguments become lengthy, as expected, the case may not go to the jury until Tuesday, court observers said. Up to six hours of argument may be taken by each side, requiring two full court days.

The box score after 12 actual court days of testimony showed 32 prosecution witnesses and 3 defense witnesses had testified. Exhibits totaled 98.

The state contends Parker, as related in a confession he signed a week later, strangled his wife when she refused his alter-breakfast advances 11 days before Christmas.

Omahan Dies

Charles Russell, 68, of Omaha, who has been hospitalized in Lincoln for seven months, died Friday.

ing and Parker was in the room while his wife dressed.

When would Parker's advances have come, before or after breakfast? Towle asked.

"Probably before breakfast," Dr. Stein replied.

To another defense question, Dr. Stein said he "knew of no case" where a man killed his wife because of sexual frustration after breakfast.

"Do you know of cases where men have killed their wives," Scheele asked.

"And, do you know of cases where women have killed their husbands?" Towle chimed in.

Dr. Stein did not have opportunity to answer either question as Judge Polk rapped for order.

State Chemist Bennet Hites was recalled to testify he used "standard tests" in determining the time lapse from the stomach contents between eating and death.

Two defense witnesses took the view the state's contention on the time lapse was "only speculative at best" from state evidence.

Don Wright, KOLN-TV photographer, identified several pictures taken of Parker the early morning of Dec. 22 and the afternoon.

These were introduced by the state in connection with other testimony that Parker appeared normal and unemotional at those times.

Mrs. Wagner, 79, 1-Way Pair Action Expected Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Wagner, 79, of 340 No. 24th, will be 3 p.m. Saturday at Helmsdoerfers.

The Rev. C. F. Stark will officiate. Burial will be at Wyuka.

Mrs. Wagner, who died Friday, was a lifetime resident of Nebraska. Born at Columbus, she had lived in Lincoln 25 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Velma Johnson of Lincoln; son, James Ellgedge of Sacramento, Calif.; three grandsons, and four great-grandchildren.

City Council action is expected to come Monday in support of 9th and 10th as a one-way pair from T to Van Dorn.

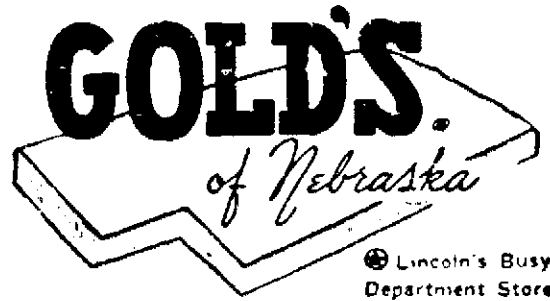

A special Council committee of Councilmen Bennett S. (Abe) Martin and Joseph E. Fenton will have a recommendation Monday on steps needed to be taken to implement the one-way plan. The recommendation is expected to include a modest widening and new paving program.

Following a decision on 9th and 10th, Mayor Clark Jeary said, the committee will be asked to turn its attention toward other possible improvements. Some $30,000 is available for street improvements this summer.

High on the Council's priority list, said Jeary, are such projects as the widening of Vine and South streets and extension of the southeast radial from 27th and D to Normal and A.

Vine is now 38 feet wide east of 35th, 25 feet wide from 33rd to 35th and 33 feet wide from 33rd west to 14th. Widening of the west of 35th, Jeary said, would be a great improvement and relieve the traffic load on O St.

Omahan Dies

Charles Russell, 68, of Omaha, who has been hospitalized in Lincoln for seven months, died Friday.

ing and Parker was in the room while his wife dressed.

When would Parker's advances have come, before or after breakfast? Towle asked.

"Probably before breakfast," Dr. Stein replied.

To another defense question, Dr. Stein said he "knew of no case" where a man killed his wife because of sexual frustration after breakfast.

"Do you know of cases where men have killed their wives," Scheele asked.

"And, do you know of cases where women have killed their husbands?" Towle chimed in.

Dr. Stein did not have opportunity to answer either question as Judge Polk rapped for order.

State Chemist Bennet Hites was recalled to testify he used "standard tests" in determining the time lapse from the stomach contents between eating and death.

Two defense witnesses took the view the state's contention on the time lapse was "only speculative at best" from state evidence.

Don Wright, KOLN-TV photographer, identified several pictures taken of Parker the early morning of Dec. 22 and the afternoon.

These were introduced by the state in connection with other testimony that Parker appeared normal and unemotional at those times.

Mrs. Wagner, 79, Funeral Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Wagner, 79, of 540 No. 24th, will be 3 p.m. Saturday at Helmsdoerfers.

The Rev. C. F. Stark will officiate. Burial will be at Wyuka.

Mrs. Wagner, who died Friday, was a lifetime resident of Nebraska. Born at Columbus, she had lived in Lincoln 25 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Velma Johnson of Lincoln; son, James Elledge of Sacramento, Calif.; three grandsons, and four great-grandchildren.

1-Way Pair Action Expected

City Council action is expected to come Monday in support of 9th and 10th as a one-way pair from T to Van Dorn.

A special Council committee of Councilmen Bennett S. (Abe) Martin and Joseph E. Fenton will have a recommendation Monday on steps needed to be taken to implement the one-way plan. The recommendation is expected to include a modest widening and new paving program.

Following a decision on 9th and 10th, Mayor Clark Jeary said, the committee will be asked to turn its attention toward other possible improvements. Some $330,000 is available for street improvements this summer.

High on the Council's priority list, said Jeary, are such projects as the widening of Vine and South streets and extension of the southeast radial from 27th and D to Normal and A.

Vine is now 38 feet wide east of 35th, 25 feet wide from 33rd to 35th and 33 feet wide from 33rd west to 14th. Widening of the west of 35th, Jeary said, would be a great improvement and relieve the traffic load on O St.
